

1. Ms. Akosua is newly-promoted to a patient care manager position. She updates her knowledge on the theories in management and leadership in order to become effective in her new role. She learns that some managers have low concern for services and high concern for staff. Which style of management refers to this?

A. Organization Man
B. Impoverished Management
C. Country Club Management
D. Team Management

2. Her former manager demonstrated passion for serving her staff rather than being served. She takes time to listen, prefers to be a teacher first before being a leader, which is characteristic of _____.

A. Transformational leader
B. Transactional leader
C. Servant leader
D. Charismatic leader

3. On the other hand, Ms. Caputo notices that the Chief Nurse Executive has charismatic leadership style. Which of the following behaviours best describes this style?

A. Possesses inspirational quality that makes followers gets attracted of him and regards him with reverence
B. Acts as he does because he expects that his behaviour will yield positive results
C. Uses visioning as the core of his leadership
D. Matches his leadership style to the situation at hand.

4. Which of the following conclusions of Ms. Caputo about leadership characteristics is TRUE?

A. There is a high correlation between the communication skills of a leader and the ability to get the job done.
B. A manager is effective when he has the ability to plan well.
C. Assessment of personal traits is a reliable tool for predicting a manager's potential.
D. There is good evidence that certain personal qualities favour success in managerial role.

5. She reads about Path Goal theory. Which of the following behaviours is manifested by the leader who uses this theory?

A. Recognizes staff for going beyond expectations by giving them citations
B. Challenges the staff to take individual accountability for their own practice
C. Admonishes staff for being laggards.
D. Reminds staff about the sanctions for non-performance.

6. One leadership theory states that "leaders are born and not made," which refers to which of the following theories?

A. Trait
B. Charismatic
C. Great Man
D. Situational

7. She came across a theory which states that the leadership style is effective dependent on the situation. Which of the following styles best fits a situation when the followers are self-directed, experts and are matured individuals?
- A. Democratic
B. Authoritarian
C. Laissez faire
D. Bureaucratic
8. She surfs the internet for more information about leadership styles. She reads about shared leadership as a practice in some magnet hospitals. Which of the following describes this style of leadership?
- A. Leadership behaviour is generally determined by the relationship between the leader's personality and the specific situation
B. Leaders believe that people are basically good and need not be closely controlled
C. Leaders rely heavily on visioning and inspire members to achieve results
D. Leadership is shared at the point of care.
9. Ms. Caputo learns that some leaders are transactional leaders. Which of the following does NOT characterize a transactional leader?
- A. Focuses on management tasks
B. Is a caretaker
C. Uses trade-offs to meet goals
D. Inspires others with vision
10. An employee will follow an effective leader because
- A. he or she has to due to the formal chain of command
B. the leader is in a position of authority
C. he or she fears being fired for not following the leader
D. he or she is inspired by the leader
11. Angelina is considering going from managing 50 people to taking on a job overseeing five people working on a very technical project working with small parts. What would be her span of control?
- A. The span of control be very narrow.
B. It would make the span of control more efficient.
C. The project manager's span would include reporting to two bosses.
D. The span of control would be broad.
12. How are managers awarded their power and authority?
- A. By virtue of their position
B. As a result of their personality
C. By their personal qualities
D. As a result of their education and training

13. A leader can BEST motivate employees by.....
- A. constantly emphasizing the mission of the company and the employees' role in making the business successful
 - B. ensuring the employees have clear instructions so that they can be more efficient at their jobs
 - C. learning about the employees' needs and wants and recognizing their good work
 - D. giving the employees pay raises and bonuses as a way to recognize good work
14. "According to the.....of leadership, leadership calls for certain qualities like commanding personality, charm, courage, intelligence, persuasiveness and aggressiveness".
- A. great man theory
 - B. House's Path Goal Theory
 - C. Behavioural theories
 - D. Situational theory
15. She finds out that some managers have benevolent-authoritative style of management. Which of the following behaviours will she exhibit most likely?
- A. Have condescending trust and confidence in their subordinates
 - B. Gives economic or ego awards
 - C. Communicates downward to the staff
 - D. Allows decision making among subordinates
16. Henry is a Unit Manager in a Medical Unit. He is not satisfied with the way things are going in his unit. Patient satisfaction rate is 60% for two consecutive months and staff morale is at its lowest. He decides to plan and initiate changes that will push for a turnaround in the condition of the unit. Which of the following actions is a priority for Henry?
- A. Call for a staff meeting and take this up in the agenda.
 - B. Seek help from her manager.
 - C. Develop a strategic action on how to deal with these concerns.
 - D. Ignore the issues since these will be resolved naturally.
17. He knows that there are external forces that influence changes in his unit. Which of the following is NOT an external force?
- A. Memo from the CEO to cut down on electrical consumption
 - B. Demands of the labour sector to increase wages
 - C. Low morale of staff in her unit
 - D. Exacting regulatory and accreditation standards
18. After discussing the possible effects of the low patient satisfaction rate, the staff started to list down possible strategies to solve the problems head-on. Should they decide to vote on the best change strategy, which of the following strategies is referred to this?

A. Collaboration

D. Compromise

B. Majority rule

C. Dominance

19. One staff suggests that they review the pattern of health care that they are using, which is described as a:

A. job description

D. rules to be followed

B. system used to deliver care

C. manual of procedure

20. He is hopeful that his unit will make a big turnaround in the succeeding months. Which of the following actions of Henry demonstrates that he has reached the third stage of change?

A. Wonders why things are not what it used to be

B. Finds solutions to the problems

C. Integrate the solutions to his day-to-day activities

D. Selects the best change strategy

21. He likewise stresses the need for all the employees to follow orders and instructions from him and not from anyone else. Which of the following principles does he refer to?

A. Scalar chain

D. Order

B. Discipline

C. Unity of command

22. Julius orients his staff on the patterns of reporting relationship throughout the organization. Which of the following principles refer to this?

A. Span of control

D. Unity of direction

B. Hierarchy

C. Esprit d' corps

23.implies that successful leaders need not necessarily be born with some peculiar (unique) traits or characteristics, but they can be trained to acquire skills for effective leadership.

A. Situational theory

D. Transformational theory

B. Transactional theory

C. Behavioural theory

24. According to the situational theories of leadership, the factors that can influence a particular situation include the following except.....

A. the traits of the leader

B. the nature of the job and organization

C. nature of his followers

D. nature of the geographical area within which the organisation is located.

25. In which of the following situations would the Collaborating Conflict Style of conflict resolution be most appropriately used?
- A. When dealing with important issues requiring optimum solutions
 - B. When compromise will result in sub optimization
 - C. When People are willing to place the group goal before self-interest
 - D. When time is not available
26. He emphasizes to the team that they need to put their efforts together towards the attainment of the goals of the program. Which of the following principles refers to this?
- A. Span of control
 - B. Unity of direction
 - C. Unity of command
 - D. Command responsibility
27. Julius stresses the importance of promoting 'esprit d corps' among the members of the unit. Which of the following remarks of the staff indicates that they understand what he pointed out?
- A. "Let's work together in harmony; we need to be supportive of one another"
 - B. "In order that we achieve the same results; we must all follow the directives of Julius and not from other managers."
 - C. "We will ensure that all the resources we need are available when needed."
 - D. "We need to put our efforts together in order to raise the bar of excellence in the care we provide to all our patients."
28. He wants to influence the customary way of thinking and behaving that is shared by the members of the department. Which of the following terms refer to this?
- A. Organizational chart
 - B. Cultural network
 - C. Organizational structure
 - D. Organizational culture
29. He asserts the importance of promoting a positive organizational culture in their unit. Which of the following behaviours indicate that this is attained by the group?
- A. Proactive and caring with one another
 - B. Competitive and perfectionist
 - C. Powerful and oppositional
 - D. Obedient and uncomplaining
30. A combination of qualities that classifies an individual's behaviour is known as.....
- A. Ability
 - B. Personality
 - C. Agreeableness
 - D. Surgency

31. An autocratic style of leadership works best in the following conditions except when.....
- A. there is no need for input on the decision
 - B. where the decision would not change as a result of input
 - C. the motivation of people to carry out subsequent actions would not be affected whether they were or were not involved in the decision-making.
 - D. there is no requirement for a central coordination
32. Among the combination of qualities that classifies an individual's behaviour, which of the following does not form part of the Big Five Model?
- A. Agreeableness
 - B. Insurgency
 - C. Adjustment
 - D. Conscientiousness
33. Which of the following options does not include the four themes that emerged in the 1980s as part of the leadership evolution?
- A. Do as the leader wish
 - B. Traits
 - C. Transformation
 - D. Leadership by example
34. In.....the theorists suggest that situational factors affect the success of a leader in a particular instance.
- A. Transactional Leadership
 - B. Charismatic Leadership
 - C. Situational theory
 - D. Trait theory
35. All the options below are advantages of the Autocratic Style of leadership, with exception of
- A. Quick decision making.
 - B. Increased deficiency because of the use of loose supervision and control measures.
 - C. The chain of command and divisions of work are clear and fully understood by all.
 - D. It is effective in helping new and unskilled employees to acquire experience.
36. The democratic style of leadership has the following advantages except.....
- A. It gives employees a sense of personal satisfaction and accomplishment.
 - B. It encourages subordinates to develop their individual potentials and skills.
 - C. It enables managers or leaders to make maximum use of individual skills, abilities or talents, intelligence as well as experiences.
 - D. It is highly inflexible since it does not allow room for exceptions to general rules in peculiar situations.

37. The following are all mistakes that a manager/leader is likely to make except.....

A. Insensitive to others.

D. Betrayal of trust.

B. Assertive and disciplined.

C. Cold, aloof, arrogant.

38. Culture serves two important functions in organizations. Which of the following statements confirm such functions?

I. It helps the organization adapt to the external environment

II. It gives meaning to each individual's membership in the workplace.

III. It emerges from the history and experiences of individuals and groups in an organization.

IV. It creates internal unity

A. I and II

B. II and III

C. I and IV

D. III and IV

39. After knowing the leadership style through LPC and defining all the situations, a leader who would fit for the situation is then chosen. According to this process, which of the following constitute the two ways to improve leader effectiveness?

I. Changing the leader to fit the situation

II. Encouraging servant leadership

III. Changing the situation to fit the leader

IV. Leader -member exchange.

A. I and II

B. I and III

C. II and III

D. III and IV

40. Competencies, Individual attributes, Leadership outcomes, Career experience and Environmental influence best describes _____

A. Competencies (skills model)

D. Components of the skills model

B. Outline social judgement skills

C. General cognitive ability

41. Having insight into and awareness of what is important to others, how they are motivated, the problems they face, and how they react to change best describes _____

A. general cognitive ability

D. social judgement skills

B. social perceptiveness

C. social Performance

42. _____ is a capability model that examines the relationship between a leader's knowledge and skills
- A. Skills model
- B. Technical skills
- C. Social judgement skills
- D. Human skills
43. Persistence, dominance, and drive are characteristics of which trait?
- A. Is focused on virtue
- D. Determination
- B. Consideration
- C. Vertical Dyad
44. Which one of the following is not a task-focused leader behaviour?
- A. Consideration
- D. Determination
- B. Follower conceptual ability
- C. Charismatic
45. What two types of leadership behaviour were identified by the program of research at the University of Michigan?
- A. Employee orientation and production orientation
- B. Pre-conventional morality
- C. Knowledge and competencies to accomplish goals
- D. Transformational leadership
46. _____ describes leaders who are compromisers; provides some push for production and some attention to employees. Avoids conflict and emphasizes moderate levels of production and employee relationships
- A. Behavioural approach to leadership
- B. Middle of the Road Management
- C. The two general types of Leadership Behaviour (University of Michigan)
- D. Task Behaviour
47. _____ refers to a leader who uses both country club & authority-compliance management; regard organization as family, make most of the key decisions, and reward loyalty and obedience, while punishing non-compliance (benevolent dictator) - (Blake & Mouton)
- A. Opportunism
- D. Country Club Management
- B. Impoverished Management
- C. Paternalism/Maternalism
48. Based on followers' perceptions of the leader's competence. A tour guide who is knowledgeable about a foreign country has expert power.
- A. Referent Power
- B. Legitimate Power

C. Expert Power

D. Reward Power

49. _____ is the social cognitive process involved in assuming the perspective of others and understanding their thoughts and feelings.

A. Human skills

D. Perspective taking

B. technical skills

C. social perceptiveness

50. All of the following positive communication behaviours is associated with emergent leadership, except

A. Being verbally involved

D. Initiating new ideas

B. Establishing roles

C. Seeking others' opinions

51. Leadership definitions have evolved during the 20th century in the following way:

A. The trait approach remains the most popular approach over time.

B. A leader's power remains a key requirement for goal accomplishment.

C. Focus on leadership effectiveness became prominent in the 1970s.

D. Leadership research peaked in the 1980s.

52. You are told you need to work weekends. Your supervisor gives you a pay raise in return. What type of power is your supervisor using?

A. Referent

D. Reward

B. Expert

C. Legitimate

53. Leadership is a phenomenon that takes place in the context of the interaction between leaders and followers. This viewpoint would suggest leadership is accessible by all:

A. Reward

D. Trait

B. Referent

C. Process

54. You really enjoy working for your boss and look up to her or him as a role model. You are more than willing to work hard for the organization because of your relationship with your boss. This is an example of _____

A. Legitimate power

D. Personal power

B. Coercive power

C. Position power

55. On the way to track practice you get pulled over for speeding. When you arrive to practice late, the coach makes you run laps. This is an example of