

A. Legitimate power

D. Personal power

B. Coercive power

C. Expert power

56. Often leadership occurs within a context where one individual influences a group of others to accomplish goals. Which best describes this component of leadership?

A. Leadership occurs in groups.

B. Leadership involves influence.

C. Leadership includes organizations.

D. Leadership includes attention to common goals.

57. Studies on leadership emergence with regard to gender-biased perceptions would suggest

A. Influential women were rated the same as men in terms of leadership.

B. Women are much more likeable than men.

C. Emergence in leadership has little to do with gender bias.

D. There continue to be barriers to women's emergence as leaders in some settings.

58. Literature suggested that management produces _____ and _____.

A. Change and structure

D. Change and movement

B. Vision and order

C. Order and consistency

59. Although there are clear differences between management and leadership,

A. There is little research to support one or the other.

B. Leadership is more valued than management.

C. The two constructs overlap.

D. Management is more valued than leadership.

60. Understanding the nature of leadership has proved to be quite the challenge for practitioners and researchers because

A. Its appeal is limited to academics and scholars.

B. Very little research has been done.

C. It has not received much attention.

D. It is a highly valued phenomenon that is very complex.

61. Your parents and older siblings are all successful elected officials. After graduation, it is suggested by many that you should seek office and, in turn, offer you their support. Which best describes the leadership approach being demonstrated?

A. Behavioural approach to leadership

B. Leadership as a process

C. Trait perspective

D. Expert power

62. As captain of the soccer team, your primary concern is winning games and maintaining the strength of the team. Your players couldn't care less about teamwork and just want to win. Which component of leadership would you recommend the leader focus on?
- A. Roles
 - B. Common goals
 - C. Process
 - D. Influence
63. The leader is at the core of group change and activity, representing the backbone of the group or organization. Leadership is viewed as
- A. Focus of group processes
 - B. Personality perspective
 - C. Leadership as an act
 - D. Leadership as a behaviour
64. Edward is the chief financial officer of an established marketing firm. He recently learned that the company is going to try to merge with a new firm. He shares this potential merger with only a few of his mid-level managers he trusts. Jeffrey has
- A. Information and referent power
 - B. Reward and referent power
 - C. Information and legitimate power
 - D. Personal and information power
65. Coercive leadership is not considered ideal leadership as defined in this text because
- A. Influence in leadership includes followers and leaders working toward a common goal
 - B. Process is a part of the definition in both coercion and leadership
 - C. Forcing and manipulative behaviors are legitimate leadership tactics
 - D. Coercive leadership involves both individual and common goals
66. My boss really does not get the technical aspects of the job my group is trying to complete. I understand the intricacies of the project and my team members come to me with all of their questions. What has happened in this work setting?
- A. I have taken control and power of the group
 - B. I have undermined my boss
 - C. I have emerged as the team leader
 - D. My boss is no longer a leader
67. The four key elements of the definition of leadership used in the text are
- A. Trait, goal, emergent, expert
 - B. Process, influence, group, goal
 - C. Values, ethics, process, performance
 - D. Capability, competency, skill, relationship

68. The “Great Man/Person” trait definition of leadership
- A. Is about the interaction between leaders and followers
 - B. Can be learned
 - C. Is restricted to those with inborn talent, qualities, or characteristics
 - D. Is about developing leadership skills
69. In the discussion about management and leadership, we say that leaders _____
- A. “Do things right”
 - B. “Do the right thing”
 - C. “Do what followers want”
 - D. “Do enough to get the job done”
70. People in the organization like me because I know what I am doing and share knowledge with followers. I have _____
- A. Position power
 - B. Personal power
 - C. Information power
 - D. Legitimate power
71. I can emerge as the leader in my group project by _____
- A. Telling all group members exactly what to do
 - B. Communicating and listening well with group members
 - C. Sitting at the head of the table
 - D. Being designated by the instructor as the group leader
72. Who is responsible for the leadership process?
- A. Followers
 - B. Leaders
 - C. Organizations
 - D. Followers and leaders
73. The common goals element of the definition of leadership means _____
- A. Leaders and followers have a mutual purpose
 - B. Leaders and followers have similar personalities
 - C. Leaders and followers have similar interests
 - D. Leaders and followers have a mutual desire for power

74. The statement "She/he is born to be a leader" suggests a _____
- A. Process definition of leadership
 - B. Trait definition of leadership
 - C. Gender bias definition of leadership
 - D. Coercive definition of leadership
75. One key to emerging as a leader
- A. Is to be perceived by others as likable and knowledgeable
 - B. Is to be forceful in asserting your opinions
 - C. Is to avoid listening to opposing opinions
 - D. Is to be perceived by others as commanding and dominant
76. Coercive leadership _____
- A. Is not allowing a player to play in competition because he or she was late to practice
 - B. Is forcing followers to engage in extreme behaviours
 - C. Is using the influence relationship to affect change
 - D. Is supporting ethical behaviour amongst team members
77. Non-leadership is _____
- A. A relational interaction between a group of people toward common goals
 - B. Sharing goal development with followers
 - C. Leadership that is focused on individual goals
 - D. Leadership that is focused on working with followers to achieve common goals
78. Differences between management and leadership include _____
- A. Leaders are emotionally involved, whereas managers have low emotional involvement
 - B. Managers shape ideas, whereas leaders are reactive in solving problems
 - C. Leaders are unidirectional influencers, whereas managers are multidirectional influencers
 - D. Leaders are controlling, whereas managers are motivating
79. The primary functions of management are _____
- A. Producing change and movement
 - B. Producing positive leadership outcomes
 - C. Producing a creative vision
 - D. Producing order and consistency
80. As a manager, she focuses her energy on both the quality of services rendered to the patients as well as the welfare of the staff of her unit. Which of the following management styles does she adopt?

- A. Country club management
- B. Organization man management
- C. Team management
- D. Authority-obedience management

81. The balanced score card sets goals and performance measures from all of the following perspectives except

- A. innovation and learning
- B. financial
- C. customer
- D. productivity

82. Which type of control issues reports on a weekly or monthly basis?

- A. strategic
- B. operational
- C. supervisory
- D. tactical

83. Ratios that indicate how effectively an organization is managing resources are

- A. return ratios
- B. liquidity ratios
- C. asset management ratios
- D. debt management ratios

84. Which of the following is not a barrier to successful control?

- A. flexibility
- B. too much control
- C. overemphasis on paperwork
- D. too little employee participation

85. Which of the following is not a good source of competitive intelligence?

- A. press release
- B. investor information
- C. trade shows
- D. text books

86. Interpersonal space, time, touch, and body movements are all examples of

- A. feedback
- B. jargon
- C. nonverbal communication
- D. cultural barriers

87. Which of the following is not one of the stages of group and team development?

- A. adapting
- B. norming
- C. performing
- D. storming

88. During which stage should the leader emphasize unity and help identify team goals and values?

- A. storming

B. norming

C. adjourning

D. performing

89. Conflict that hinders the organization's performance or threatens its interests is called

A. cooperative conflict

B. functional conflict

C. constructive conflict

D. dysfunctional conflict

90. Health insurance, disability protection, and retirement plans are all examples of

A. wages

B. incentives

C. benefits

D. salaries

91. The obligation to perform the tasks assigned to the manager is referred to as

A. responsibility

B. delegation

C. accountability

D. authority

92. Which type of structure combines functional and divisional chains of command?

A. functional

B. divisional

C. geographic

D. matrix

93. Which of the following is not a stage in the organization lifecycle?

A. birth

B. youth

C. maturity

D. decline

94. Which type of bias occurs when a manager generalizes from a small sample?

A. confirmation bias

B. representativeness bias

C. availability bias

D. sunk cost bias

95. Which of the following is not true of group decision making?

A. it is more efficient

B. group size affects decision quality

C. groups are more confident of the decision

D. knowledge is important

96. Which of the following is not an internal dimension of diversity?

A. gender

B. marital status

C. race

D. sexual orientation

97. A manager that believes his way is best is a _____ manager.

A. geocentric

B. polycentric

C. transcenic

D. ethnocentric

98. In which type of economy is the production of goods and services controlled by private enterprise?

A. command

B. centrally planned

C. free economy

D. mixed

99. Which of the following is not one of Hofstede's four dimensions?

A. gender differentiation

B. individualism/collectivism

C. power distance

D. uncertainty avoidance

100. The beliefs and knowledge one has about a situation is a(n) _____ component of attitude.

A. affective

B. emotional

C. cognitive

D. behavioral

1. Explain how you will apply the following managerial concepts to ensure a maximum production from employee in an organisation:

I. scientific management

II. Bureaucratic management

III. McGregor Theory X and Y

B. How would you describe the process of organisation as a system.

2. Cital X company is worried about the recent COVID 19 pandemic which has virtually rendered their ultimate business strategy irrelevant. For two months, they have been escalating commitment, yet the result and outcome seem insignificant. As a management professional, what managerial principle or theory would you recommend to them to ensure management effectiveness and efficiency considering the context and their strategy.

3. Change they say is the only permanent thing in the world. Managers are confronted with both internal and external changes that may pose a significant threats to the effectiveness, efficiency and survival of the organisation. With reference to the inevitability of change;

a. Explain 5 possible changes both in the internal and external environment that managers may have to contend with.

b. How has COVID 19 pandemic changed management thinking and the BIG lesson for contemporary managers.

4. Decision making is an important function for ensuring total quality management and to promote creativity and innovation in organisation.

a. Explain how total quality management and organisational creativity and innovation is a decision making process.

- b. What does the concept of bounded rationality indicate the extent to which decision making can be effective?