

E _____
F _____
G _____
H _____

b). Match List I with List II by writing the letter of the correct answer in list I against the letter in front of List II, with regard to the explanation of terms on the Commodity Security (CS).
Framework. (7 Marks)

List I

A---Context
B-Commitment
C--Capital (financial resources).
D--Coordination
E-Capacity to implement the system
F-Commercial Sector, Public Sector, NGOs, and Social Marketing.
G---Clients demands and utilization

LIST II

I---- The various partners who are working together to achieve Commodity Security, including the public sector (government), as well as the private sector and donors.

II— —this includes the supply chain that will get the products where they are needed, service delivery that will give clients access to the services, and the human and technical capability that

III ----In this framework are actors who mobilize their capital, coordination and capacity in order to bring services to the clients.

IV-----Ensure that we are meeting the needs of the clients and addressing specific issues that impact CS at the client level, such as access, communities, method choice, met and unmet need ability and willingness to pay, and sources used

V.--- Refers to the overall situation that exists in the country where commodity security is going To be achieved, including political, policy , economic, social and mental environment.

VI-----refers to the level of policy support and leadership. and includes commitment by all partners: government. donors, private sector, and NGO sector.

VI- A variety of funding sources (the government cannot meet all of the needs alone), and availability of funds to support all of the requirements needed to achieve Commodity Security, including the purchase of the products and the infrastructure needed to manage them

ANSWER QUESTION 2b (Write Roman numeral in List II against the alphabets in list I

A_____

B_____

C_____

D_____

E_____

F_____

G_____

Eg H_____VIII

QUESTION 3

a. The parties to the contract in procurement normally have no right to terminate the Contract . Explain this statement as briefly as possible (3marks)

.Explain how possible a procurement contract can be amended (3marks)

c. List four (4) procurement processes known to you (4marks)

d. Indicate any two procurement ethics. (2marks)

e. Indicate three (3) logistic roles of the in charge at the health facility (3marks)

QUESTION 4

a. Indicate any three (3) reasons each for monitoring logistics activities and supervising personnel with logistics duties

Reasons for monitoring (6marks)

Reasons for supervising

b. What are the four (4) general guidelines for reviewing bids that meet the minimum requirements. (4marks)

C. Besides qualified bids and proposals evaluated based on the lowest price, what three additional commercial and technical criteria are used?
