

SELECT THE MOST APPROPRIATE OPTION

121. Master James received a zero dose vaccine, this indicates that :

- a. He has no vaccination
- b. Dose after the first vaccine
- c. No antibody response
- d. Vaccination at displaced persons camp

SELECT THE MOST APPROPRIATE OPTION

122. This implies the entrusting part of the superior's work or schedule to be handled by his subordinates.

- a. Transfer
- b. Delegation
- c. Supervision
- d. Directing

SELECT THE MOST APPROPRIATE OPTION

123. This is harmonizing the various parts of the work and removing the overlapping and conflicting activities of an organization

- a. Planning
- b. Coordinating
- c. Organisation
- d. Directing

SELECT THE MOST APPROPRIATE OPTION

124. Which of the following is not a type of research design?

- a. Experimental designs
- b. Quasi experimental designs
- c. Ex pre facto designs
- d. Non experimental designs

SELECT THE MOST APPROPRIATE OPTION

125. Which of the following is not one of the 14 principles of management proposed by Henry Fayol?

- a. Subordination of individual interests
- b. Remuneration
- c. Decentralization
- d. Clear line of authority

SELECT THE MOST APPROPRIATE OPTION

126. The drug of choice for intermittent prevention of malaria in cyesis is :

- a. Artesunate
- b. Sulfadoxine pyrimethamine
- c. Quinine
- d. Chloroquine sulphate

SELECT THE MOST APPROPRIATE OPTION

127. Aminophylline (theophylline) is prescribed for a client with acute bronchitis. A nurse administers the medication, knowing that the primary action of this medication is to:

- a. Promote expectoration.
- b. Suppress the cough.
- c. Relax smooth muscles of the bronchial airway.
- d. Prevent infection.

SELECT THE MOST APPROPRIATE OPTION

- 128. A female client is scheduled to have a chest radiograph. Which of the following questions is of most importance to the nurse assessing this client?
- a. “Is there any possibility that you could be pregnant?”
 - b. “Are you wearing any metal chains or jewelry?”
 - c. “Can you hold your breath easily?”
 - d. “Are you able to hold your arms above your head?”

SELECT THE MOST APPROPRIATE OPTION

129. A client has just returned to a nursing unit following bronchoscopy. A nurse would implement which of the following nursing interventions for this client?

- a. Encouraging additional fluids for the next 24 hours
- b. Ensuring the return of the gag reflex before offering foods or fluids
- c. Administering atropine intravenously
- d. Administering small doses of midazolam (Versed).

SELECT THE MOST APPROPRIATE OPTION

130. A nurse is assessing a client with chronic airflow limitation and notes that the client has a “barrel chest.” The nurse interprets that this client has which of the following forms of chronic airflow limitation?

- a. Chronic obstructive bronchitis
- b. Emphysema
- c. Bronchial asthma
- d. Bronchial asthma and bronchitis