

SELECT THE MOST APPROPRIATE OPTION

61. A surgical nurse uses sterile fluid to flush wound in a surgical ward.
The is performing :

- a. Wound dressing
- b. Wound cleaning
- c. Wound sterilization
- d. Wound irrigation

SELECT THE MOST APPROPRIATE OPTION

62. The composition and volume of body fluids are regulated primarily by :

- a. Heart
- b. Lungs
- c. Urine out put
- d. Kidneys

SELECT THE MOST APPROPRIATE OPTION

63. The clinical nurse is performing a procedure characterised by submerging the client's perineal area in warm water. The nurse knows this procedure as :

- a. Suppository insertion
- b. Perineal irrigation
- c. Sitz bath
- d. Perineal warming

SELECT THE MOST APPROPRIATE OPTION

64. The stage of death characterised by stiffness of the muscles of the limbs due to chemical changes is termed as :

- a. Cessational stiffness
- b. Mortis reabilis
- c. Rigor mortis
- d. Body stiffness

SELECT THE MOST APPROPRIATE OPTION

65. Cardiac arrest is a problem of the :

- a. Conducting system of the heart
- b. Heart muscles
- c. Heart valve
- d. Coronary artery

SELECT THE MOST APPROPRIATE OPTION

- 66. At the base of the triangle in Maslow's hierarchy of needs is :
- a. Physiological needs
 - b. Safety and security
 - c. Love and esteem
 - d. Self actualization

SELECT THE MOST APPROPRIATE OPTION

67. Medicine commonly used in suppressing or relieving coughing but which may not necessarily treat the underlying cause is :

- a. Antibiotics
- b. Expectorant
- c. Antitussive agents
- d. Broncholytic agents

SELECT THE MOST APPROPRIATE OPTION

68. Venous drainage from the heart is through the :

- a. Cardiac vein
- b. Coronary sinuses
- c. Coronary arteries
- d. Vena cava

SELECT THE MOST APPROPRIATE OPTION

69. Murophobia refers to:

- a. Fear of humans
- b. Fear of rats
- c. Fear of bats
- d. Fear of women

SELECT THE MOST APPROPRIATE OPTION

70. The first important activity of a ward manager is :

- a. Planning
- b. Delegation
- c. Organizing
- d. Job allocation