

22. A doctor orders medication to which the client is allergic. If the nurse cannot get hold of the doctor prior to the first dose, what should she do?

- A. Give the medication as ordered by the doctor
- B. Call the pharmacist and discuss acceptable alternative medication
- C. Notify the nurse supervisor of the situation
- D. Hold the medication and wait to speak to the doctor

23. An elderly client asks her long time nurse to become her power of attorney. What should the nurse say?

- A. Thank you, I will take my responsibility very seriously
- B. I cannot do this, but I will help you get in contact with a lawyer
- C. I am sure your son will be pleased not to have to carry that burden
- D. That is a good idea because you have become forgetful lately

24. If a patient about to be discharged suggests to the nurse that she would like to get together again if she feels depressed, what should the nurse's response be?

- A. Suggest they to the gym together to exercise
- B. Provide patient information about crises center
- C. It's okay as long as they meet in a public place
- D. Agree to meet with the patient at her convenience

25. What should you do if a competent client refuses to take a narcotic analgesic for cancer-related pain?

- A. Ensure the client understands the rational for taking the medication
- B. Try and persuade the client to take the medication
- C. Document his choice and reassess his pain in 1 hour
- D. Ask his wife to hold his hand while you put the pill under his tongue

26. The nurse is examining the Foley's catheter in a surgical ward with 4 patients. The nurse does not pull the curtains and does not cover the client while performing the assessment.

Which of the following qualities of ethical care is the nurse violating?

- A. Choice
- B. Confidentiality
- C. Dignity
- D. justice

27. An elderly client wants to return home after her hip replacement. The family wants her to go to a nursing home. Acting as a client advocate, the nurse:

- A. Informs the family that the client has a right to decide on her own.
- B. Asks the physician to discharge the client to home.
- C. Suggests the client hire a lawyer to protect her rights.
- D. Helps the client and family communicate their views to each other.

28. A student nurse realizes that she has administered the wrong dose of medication to a patient. She immediately informs her clinical instructor. This student nurse is best described professionally as:

- A. Confident
- B. Trustworthy
- C. Compliant
- D. Accountable

29. The nurse gives two pills instead of the ordered one pill. The physician is notified. The client is carefully monitored and no untoward effects occur. Can the nurse be sued for malpractice?

- A. No, the client was not harmed.
- B. No, the nurse notified the physician.
- C. Yes, a breach of duty exists.
- D. Yes, foreseeability is present.

30. The nurse is to give a medication she has not given before. When checking the drug handbook, she reads that the ordered amount is an unusually large dose. A nurse who is aware of nursing liability would do which of the following actions?

- A. Give the medication
- B. Call the physician
- C. Call the pharmacist
- D. Not give the medication

31. Caring is evident in many ways in nursing practice. A caring behaviour is best demonstrated when the nurse:

- A. Tells the family about the client's problems
- B. Calls the client by his or her first name during the admission interview
- C. Closes the door and covers the client during a bath
- D. Shares personal information about the client with the roommate

32. A registered nurse arrives at work and is told to "float" to the ICU for the day because the ICU is understaffed and needs an additional nurse to care for the clients. The nurse has never worked in the ICU. Which of the following is the most appropriate nursing action?

- A. refuse to float in the ICU
- B. call the hospital lawyer
- C. call the nursing supervisor
- D. report to the ICU and identify tasks that can be safely performed

33. The nurse is obligated to follow a physician's order unless:

- A. The order is a verbal order
- B. The order is illegible
- C. The order has not been transcribed
- D. The order is an error, violates hospital policy, or would be detrimental to the client

34. A primary care provider's orders indicated that a surgical consent form needs to be signed. Since the nurse was not present when the primary care provider discussed the surgical procedure, which statement "best" illustrates the nurse fulfilling the client advocate role?

A. "The doctor has asked that you sign the consent form."

B. "Do you have any questions about the procedure?"

C. "What were you told about the procedure you are going to have?"

D. "Remember that you can change your mind and cancel the procedure."

35. Oral defamation of a person by speaking unfavourable or false words by which his or her reputation is damaged is referred to as:

A. Abuse

B. Libel

C. Slander

D. Tort

36. In common law, an assault occurs when the defendant:

A. Commits an offence punishable by imprisonment

B. Refuses to come to court when summoned

C. Jumps bail

D. Without privilege or excuse, threatens an unlawful invasion of the plaintiff's right to bodily security

STUDENT ID:.....SIGNATURE.....

37. The Patient's Bill of Rights affects nursing care delivery by requiring which of the following?

- A. The right to have someone other than the client make decisions about health care
- B. The right to the least-restrictive care available for mental health conditions
- C. The right to the lowest-cost care available for medical conditions
- D. The right to refuse treatment; the right to make medical decisions; the right to confidentiality.

38. To be effective in meeting various ethnic needs, the nurse should:

- A. Act as if he or she is comfortable with the client's behavior
- B. Avoid asking questions about the client's cultural background.
- C. Be aware of clients' cultural differences
- D. Treat all clients alike

39. Which situation is an example of an unintentional tort?

- A. Administering a medication that causes client harm
- B. Documenting in the chart that the client is incompetent
- C. Forcibly restraining the client for a procedure
- D. Telling another nurse that the client is gay

40. A patient has been admitted to a sixty-bed ward. What right may be breached due to this setting?

- A. Right to examine and question his bill
- B. Right to information regarding diagnosis, treatment and prognosis.
- C. Right to privacy and confidentiality
- D. Right to refuse treatment

41. A confused client who fell out of bed because side rails were not used. This is an example of which type of liability?

- A. Assault
- B. Battery
- C. Felony
- D. Negligence

42. The most important factor in providing nursing care to clients in a specific ethnic group is:

- A. Biological variation
- B. Communication
- C. Environmental control
- D. Time orientation

43. Most litigation in the hospital comes from the:

- A. Nurse abandoning the clients when going to lunch
- B. Nurse documenting blame on the physician when a mistake is made
- C. Nurse following an order that is incomplete or incorrect
- D. Supervisor watching a new employee check his or her skills level

44. The nurse puts a restraint jacket on a client without the client's permission and without the physician's order. The nurse may be guilty of:

- A. Assault
- B. Battery
- C. Invasion of privacy
- D. Negligence

45. The following statements are considered during documentation in nursing EXCEPT.....

- A. Approved abbreviations are used
- B. Information needs to be factual
- C. Sign at the end of documentation
- D. The use of correction fluid

46. To respect a client's personal space and territoriality, the nurse:

- A. Avoids the use of touch
- B. Explains nursing care and procedures
- C. Keeps the curtains pulled around the client's bed
- D. Stands 8 feet away from the bed, if possible

47. Who qualifies to practice nursing in Ghana?

- A. The nurse who has completed national service
- B. The nurse who has passed the licensed examination
- C. The nurse who has registered with the Ghana Registered Nurses and Midwives Association
- D. The nurse who has registered with the Nursing and Midwifery Council of Ghana