

48. A patient was rushed to the emergency ward in an unconscious state by relatives.

Examination of patient revealed absent reflexes and the doctor declared the patient clinically dead. This case was referred to the coroner because patient was:

- I. Already dead on arrival
- II. Brought in a commercial vehicle
- III. In the hospital less than 24 hours
- IV. Rushed in by his relatives

- A. I and II
- B. I and III
- C. I and IV
- D. II and III

49. Prohibition from intentionally harming others is referred to as:

- A. Eugenics
- B. Cloning
- C. Confidentiality
- D. Nonmaleficence

50. An ethical principle that private information entrusted to a person should not be shared with anyone else is:

- A. anonymity
- B. human dignity
- C. utilitarianism
- D. confidentiality

51. Quality of being worthy of honor or regard is known as:

- A. equity
- B. veracity
- C. human dignity
- D. euthanasia

52. To treat fairly or the quality of being right or correct is called

- A. eugenics
- B. equity
- C. ethics
- D. justice

53. In the context of research, this indicates the identities of individuals will not be made public, nor will they be associated in any way with data or information gathered by the researcher. The concept is:

- A. anonymity
- B. veracity
- C. abortion
- D. cloning

54. For patients to be responsibly involved in decision making, they must be fully informed of all aspects of their conditions, prognoses, and treatment options as well as the anticipated results of treatments and any possible side effects. These facts collectively refer to:

- A. informed consent
- B. Anne Boykin
- C. nonmaleficence
- D. obligations

55. Independence or self-law; principle that patients should always be cared for with the understanding that they are people of value and worth who generally have a desire to be both autonomous and self-determining. This description refers to:

- A. surrogacy
- B. altruism
- C. eugenics
- D. autonomy

56. Deliberate or intentional procedure that removes or induces the expulsion of a living embryo or fetus (less than 28 weeks of gestation) could be termed as:

- A. anonymity
- B. abortion
- C. justice
- D. altruism

57. When one person takes the initiative to deliberately end another person's life by providing the means by which to do so

- A. Madeline Leininger
- B. assisted suicide
- C. eugenics
- D. Anne Boykin

58. The end or outcome justifies the means; if it has good or useful consequences or promotes the greatest possible happiness for the greatest number, it must be good. This could be termed:

- A. Ethics
- B. Obligations
- C. Utilitarianism
- D. Altruism

59. You are the nurse working with an elderly, competent client who refuses a vitamin B injection ordered by the physician. The family insists that this injection be given, and you give it while the client is objecting. Even though the client improves, the client contacts a lawyer. From your knowledge of nursing and the law, you realize that you:

- A. Did the right thing because the client improved.
- B. Should have had the family put their request in writing.
- C. Have committed an assault against the client.
- D. Have committed an act of battery against the client.

60. You are a student nurse working as a part-time or temporary nursing assistant in a nursing home. The nurse on duty asks you to insert a nasogastric tube in a patient. You have recently passed an examination on putting in a nasogastric tube. Which of the following actions is best on your part?

- A. Go ahead and insert the nasogastric tube.
- B. Ask the nurse to supervise you while you insert the tube.
- C. Call your school instructor for help with your decision.
- D. Tell the nurse that you cannot legally insert this tube.

61. According to the nursing code of ethics, when working as a nurse and a conflict comes up between your client's needs and what the family and/or the physician wants, and/or the hospital policies, your first loyalty is to the:

- A. Hospital.
- B. Client.
- C. Family.
- D. Physician.

62. Madam Adoma gives you information about the properties she has acquired without the husband's knowledge. To whom would you disclose this Information?

- A. Biological Children
- B. Colleague nurses
- C. No one
- D. Spouse of patient/client

63. Hajia Mohammed is 30 weeks pregnant and believes that someone wants to take her baby from her womb. Which of the following Individuals would you Involve when counseling her

I- Hospital Chaplain

II. Husband of client

III. Imam

IV. Ward in charge

A. I, II, III and IV

B. I, III and IV

C. I, II and III ,

D. II, III and IV

64. Nurses who make FALSE statements about their clients or co-workers through writing can be sued for:

A. Battery

B. Libel

C. Slander

D. Tort

65. A way of communicating our feelings, thoughts and beliefs in an open honest manner without violating the rights of others is known as

- A. assertive behavior
- B. aggressive assertive behavior
- C. non - verbal communication
- D. verbal communication

CIRCLE TRUE OF FALSE TO THE QUESTIONS BELOW

66. It is okay to make disparaging remarks about employees and co-workers using social media as long as they are not identified

- A. True
- B. False

67. Privacy is client information that can only be shared with the client's informed consent, when legally required or where failure to disclose the information could result in significant harm

- A. True
- B. False

68. When necessary, it is appropriate to take photos or videos of patients on personal devices including cell phones.

- A. True
- B. False

69. The nurse puts a restraint jacket on a client without the client's permission and without the physician's order. The nurse may be guilty of assault.

A. True

B. False

70. A student nurse who is employed as a nursing assistant may perform any functions that she taught in school.

A. True

B. False