

- C. Lack of scientific evidence or regulation
- D. Guaranteed effectiveness

30. What is the purpose of cupping therapy in traditional medicine?

- A. To reduce blood pressure
- B. To treat digestive issues
- C. To improve blood circulation and remove toxins
- D. To increase energy levels

31. What is the primary focus of Homeopathy, a form of traditional medicine?

- A. Using large doses of drugs to treat disease
- B. Balancing the mind and body through energy work
- C. Using highly diluted substances to stimulate the body's healing response
- D. Surgical interventions to remove diseased organs

32. What is moxibustion, a practice used in Traditional Chinese Medicine?

- A. The use of acupuncture needles
- B. The burning of herbs near the skin to stimulate healing
- C. A form of herbal extraction
- D. The application of cold compresses

33. What does the term "phytotherapy" refer to in traditional medicine?

- a) The use of therapeutic techniques like acupuncture
- b) The use of plant-based medicines
- c) The practice of reiki healing
- d) The application of modern pharmacological drugs

34. What is one risk associated with traditional medicine?

- a) There is no risk associated with traditional medicine
- b) The use of unverified remedies and practices
- c) Traditional medicine is always scientifically proven
- d) It always leads to quick and permanent cures

35. Which of these statement is most correct?

- A. Herbal substances are more effective at treating a wide variety of diseases when compared to Western medication
- B. Herbal substances have no adverse effect
- C. Herbal substances have no beneficial therapeutic effects

D. Herbal substances may have beneficial therapeutic effects but the claim that they don't have side-effects stems from a lack of proper research

36. The use of plant roots, leaves, seeds, flowers and other parts for medicinal purposes is known as:

- A. Traditional medicine
- B. A hoax
- C. Western medicine
- D. Herbal medicine

37. Which of the following is not a Major Stake Holder in Traditional Medicine in Ghana?

- A. Association of Soothsayers and Blood letters council
- B. Traditional and Alternative Medicine Directorate of the Ministry of Health (TAMD)
- C. Center for Scientific Research into Plant and Medicine
- D. Ghana Federation of Traditional Medicine Practitioners Association (GHAFTRAM)

38. What is the benefit of moxibustion?

- A. Reduced stress and anxiety
- B. Improved circulation and immune function
- C. Relief from pain and inflammation
- D. All of the above

39. Which of this hospitals in the Upper East Region of Ghana have integrated traditional medicine into modern hospitals

- A. Bolgatanga Regional Hospital
- B. Wa Regional hospital
- C. Yendi Government Hospital
- D. Salaga Government Hospital

40. Sorcerers or witch doctors are typically believed to:

- A. Cast spells to treat or cause illness
- B. Practice modern psychology
- C. Prescribe antibiotics
- D. Perform blood transfusions

41. A cultural belief around illness caused by sorcery is that:

- A. It originates from bacteria
- B. It must be treated with vaccines
- C. It is punishment from ancestors
- D. It is untreatable

42. A woman in a rural village seeks help from a traditional birth attendant and also visits a faith healer for prayers to ensure a safe delivery. What does this reflect?

- A. Strict reliance on Western medicine
- B. A rejection of community health workers
- C. An integrated traditional practices in maternal care
- D. Illegal medical practice

43. A family believes their child's illness is due to a curse placed by a sorcerer and seeks help from a shaman to lift it. What is the primary belief system influencing their action?

- A. Biomedical model
- B. Germ theory of disease
- C. Genetic inheritance theory
- D. Spiritual-causal belief system

44. In contrast to germ theory, traditional medicine systems often attribute disease to:

- A. Poor sanitation
- B. Microbial infections
- C. Energy imbalances
- D. Nutritional supplements

45. Which of the following traditional practices aligns indirectly with the germ theory (even if the reasoning differs)?

- A. Astrology-based health forecasts
- B. Use of isolation in some cultures to prevent the spread of illness
- C. Use of rituals to cleanse spiritual impurities
- D. Use of healing stones

46. Which of the following diseases helped support the germ theory due to discovery of its microbial cause?

- A. Asthma
- B. Diabetes
- C. Malaria
- D. Tuberculosis

47. In which year did the Ministry of Health incorporate herbal medicine into the healthcare delivery system?

- A. 2015
- B. 2011
- C. 2012
- D. 2014

48. The Centre for Scientific Research into Plant Medicine (CSRPM) was established in Ghana in which year?

- A. 1975
- B. 1985
- C. 1995
- D. 2005

49. Herbal drug preparations are prepared by.....

- A. Decoction
- B. Maceration
- C. Infusion
- D. All

50. Herbs are defined as plants with....

- A. Aromatic property
- B. Flavouring properties
- C. Medicinal properties

D. All

51. In herbal medicine, garlic is used most commonly as what?

A. Antibacterial

B. Seasoning

C. Treatment for insomnia

D. Weight reduction tool

52. A woman in a rural village goes into labor during the night. The nearest health facility is over 30 kilometers away, and there is no transport available. Her family calls a local traditional birth attendant (TBA) to assist with the delivery. What is the MOST LIKELY reason the family chose to call a TBA?

A. TBAs are legally required to attend all rural births

B. TBAs provide free vaccinations

C. TBAs have access to advanced medical equipment

D. TBAs are trusted community members with experience

53. In which ancient traditional document referred to diabetes as 'urine pass through'?

A. De Materia Medica

B. History of Plants

C. Ebers Papyrus

D. Monks manuscripts

54. A patient is on a daily dose of aspirin for heart health and begins taking ginger supplements. What potential risk should a healthcare provider be MOST concerned about?

A. Liver toxicity

B. Increased blood pressure

C. Increased risk of bleeding

D. Reduced appetite

55. Grapefruit juice can increase the levels of certain drugs in the body by:

A. Inhibiting drug-metabolizing enzymes

B. Speeding up kidney excretion

C. Blocking stomach acid

D. Enhancing appetite

56. Which organ's enzyme system is most affected by grapefruit juice leading to drug interactions?

- A. Kidneys and intestines
- B. Pancreas and intestines
- C. Lungs and intestine
- D. Liver and intestines

TRUE OR FALSE

57. One of the central principles of complementary and alternative medicine is that the body heals itself.

- A. True
- B. False

58. Homeopathy is a form of complementary and alternative medicine that uses extremely small amounts of certain substances to promote healing.

- A. True
- B. False

59. Herbal medicine and acupuncture are treatments used in naturopathic medicine.

- A. True
- B. False

60. It's important to tell your healthcare provider about any dietary supplements you take because they may interact with prescription medicines.

- A. True
- B. False .