

1. What is the primary goal of a public health approach to child abuse?

- A. Punishment of offenders
- B. Prevention and early intervention
- C. Increasing awareness of legal rights
- D. Treating only severe cases

Answer: B. Prevention and early intervention

2. Which of the following is NOT considered a risk factor for child abuse?

- A. Parental substance abuse
- B. Financial stability
- C. Social isolation
- D. History of domestic violence

Answer: B. Financial stability

3. Mandatory reporting of suspected child abuse is a responsibility of:

- A. Only doctors
- B. Health professionals, teachers, and social workers
- C. Law enforcement officers only
- D. Family members

Answer: B. Health professionals, teachers, and social workers

4. What is the first step in the medical evaluation of a suspected child abuse case?

- A. Conducting a forensic interview
- B. Documenting injuries
- C. Reporting to child protective services
- D. Performing laboratory tests

Answer: B. Documenting injuries

5. Which of the following is a common sign of physical abuse in children?

- A. Frequent bedwetting
- B. Unexplained bruises or burns
- C. Difficulty in reading
- D. Overeating

Answer: B. Unexplained bruises or burns

6. What is the role of forensic interviews in child abuse cases?

- A. To collect evidence for legal proceedings
- B. To provide psychological counseling
- C. To treat physical injuries
- D. To train parents on child care

Answer: A. To collect evidence for legal proceedings

7. Which of the following best describes neglect in the context of child abuse?

- A. Physical harm caused intentionally
- B. Failure to provide basic needs
- C. Emotional manipulation
- D. Punishment that results in injury

Answer: B. Failure to provide basic needs

8. What is the primary role of medical professionals in child abuse cases?

- A. Enforcing legal action
- B. Diagnosing and treating injuries or trauma
- C. Deciding custody of the child
- D. Counseling the abuser

Answer: B. Diagnosing and treating injuries or trauma

9. Which type of child abuse is often the most difficult to detect?

- A. Physical abuse
- B. Sexual abuse
- C. Emotional abuse

D. Neglect

Answer: C. Emotional abuse

10. A public health strategy to prevent child abuse includes:

- A. Jail time for offenders
- B. Strengthening family support systems
- C. Removing children from their homes
- D. Increasing child labor laws

Answer: B. Strengthening family support systems

11. Which law requires mandatory reporting of child abuse in the United States?

- A. The Affordable Care Act
- B. Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act (CAPTA)
- C. HIPAA
- D. Family and Medical Leave Act

Answer: B. Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act (CAPTA)

12. When interviewing a child suspected of being abused, professionals should:

- A. Use leading questions
- B. Avoid repeated questioning
- C. Insist on parental presence
- D. Use aggressive interrogation tactics

Answer: B. Avoid repeated questioning

13. Which medical condition might mimic signs of physical abuse?

- A. Scurvy
- B. Diabetes
- C. Osteogenesis imperfecta
- D. Hypertension

Answer: C. Osteogenesis imperfecta

14. The "Bruise Rule" used in identifying child abuse states that:

- A. Any bruise in a non-mobile infant should raise suspicion of abuse
- B. Bruises on arms are always accidental
- C. Children never bruise easily
- D. Multiple bruises of the same size are not suspicious

Answer: A. Any bruise in a non-mobile infant should raise suspicion of abuse

15. One key component of community-based child abuse prevention programs is:

- A. Building awareness through media campaigns
 - B. Arresting parents as a precaution
 - C. Offering free legal services
 - D. Keeping child abuse confidential
- Answer: A. Building awareness through media campaigns

16. Which of the following is an example of emotional abuse?

- A. Threatening or humiliating a child
- B. Denying food and water
- C. Physical punishment causing injury
- D. Leaving a child unsupervised for long periods

Answer: A. Threatening or humiliating a child

17. Which organization often collaborates with public health agencies to prevent child abuse?

- A. World Health Organization (WHO)
- B. International Monetary Fund (IMF)
- C. World Trade Organization (WTO)
- D. United Nations Security Council

Answer: A. World Health Organization (WHO)

18. Which of the following is a protective factor against child abuse?

- A. Parental unemployment

- B. Strong social support networks
- C. Chronic family conflict
- D. Low parental education

Answer: B. Strong social support networks

19. A "safety plan" for children involves:

- A. Planning escape routes for dangerous situations
- B. Removing all adults from the home
- C. Teaching children self-defense techniques
- D. Avoiding all contact with caregivers

Answer: A. Planning escape routes for dangerous situations

20. What is the primary focus of secondary prevention in child abuse cases?

- A. Strengthening laws
- B. Early identification of at-risk families
- C. Treating long-term trauma
- D. Public awareness campaigns

Answer: B. Early identification of at-risk families

21. One of the most important medical roles in cases of sexual abuse is:

- A. Diagnosing sexually transmitted infections (STIs)
- B. Identifying the perpetrator
- C. Removing the child from the home
- D. Providing counseling to parents

Answer: A. Diagnosing sexually transmitted infections (STIs)

22. Which of the following is an indicator of sexual abuse in children?

- A. Frequent school absences
- B. Age-inappropriate sexual behavior or knowledge
- C. Overeating and weight gain
- D. Avoidance of physical activity

Answer: B. Age-inappropriate sexual behavior or knowledge

23. What is the purpose of a multidisciplinary team (MDT) in child abuse cases?

- A. To investigate and provide comprehensive care for the child
- B. To counsel the accused abuser
- C. To replace child protective services
- D. To represent the child in court

Answer: A. To investigate and provide comprehensive care for the child

24. Which type of prevention focuses on treating the long-term effects of child abuse?

- A. Primary prevention
- B. Secondary prevention
- C. Tertiary prevention
- D. Quaternary prevention

Answer: C. Tertiary prevention

25. Child abuse is considered a public health issue because:

- A. It is widespread and impacts long-term health outcomes
- B. It is only reported to health professionals
- C. It only affects children in low-income families
- D. It is primarily a legal issue, not a medical one

Answer: A. It is widespread and impacts long-term health outcomes

26. Which approach is most effective in breaking the cycle of abuse?

- A. Increasing penalties for abusers
- B. Providing therapy and support for both children and families
- C. Removing children permanently from their families
- D. Limiting child welfare services

Answer: B. Providing therapy and support for both children and families

27. What is a common public health intervention to reduce child abuse?

- A. Parenting education programs
- B. Strengthening child labor laws
- C. Limiting birth rates in vulnerable populations
- D. Increased surveillance in schools

Answer: A. Parenting education programs

28. One key sign of neglect may include:

- A. Consistent unexplained injuries
- B. Malnutrition or failure to thrive
- C. Sudden unexplained wealth in the family
- D. Refusal to attend school

Answer: B. Malnutrition or failure to thrive

29. Health professionals are legally required to document suspected child abuse cases. The documentation must include:

- A. Personal opinions about the family
- B. Detailed descriptions of injuries and statements from the child
- C. Recommendations for custody changes
- D. Photos of the child with no written report

Answer: B. Detailed descriptions of injuries and statements from the child

30. A major barrier to addressing child abuse as a public health issue is:

- A. Lack of evidence-based strategies
- B. Social stigma and fear of reporting
- C. Insufficient laws on child protection
- D. Lack of interest among medical professionals

Answer: B. Social stigma and fear of reporting

Let me know if you need more questions or further refinements!