

medication and later finds that it was the cortisone. The client states intent to sue. The decision in this suit will take into consideration the fact that;

- A. The nurse should have notified the physician
- ☒ B. The nurse is required to answer the client truthfully
- C. The client has insufficient knowledge to make such decision
- D. The physicians order take precedence over a client's preference

26. The response to allegation by someone who has been sued in court is termed

- A. Defense
- ☒ B. Answer
- C. Response
- D. Plea

27. You are the designated surrogate decision-maker for your uncle, who has been diagnosed with a progressive terminal illness. The treatment options available are extensive and complex, and you are overwhelmed by the responsibility of making decisions on his behalf. What should you do?

- A. Make decisions based solely on your personal opinions and preferences.
- ☒ B. Consult with healthcare professionals and seek their guidance in understanding the treatment options.
- C. Avoid making any decisions and leave it to the healthcare professionals.
- D. Seek the opinions of other family members and let them make the decisions.

28. Nurse Maud is been asked to testify regarding the care given in a Burn centre to a victim of an electrical accident who received nursing care during the admission on her ward.

The Nurse Maud will be acting as

- ☒ A. Witness to fact
- B. Expert witness
- C. Defendant
- D. Evidence

29. Nurse Mary Osei treating a patient with end stage cancer disease in severe pain has her patient demanding that treatment should be stopped for him to die. The medical term for this is?

- A. Do not resuscitate
- B. Planned death
- C. Hospital killing
- ☒ D. Euthanasia

30. Nurse Wendy, a staff nurse at St Gregory catholic hospital has gone to set an iv line on patient George without explaining procedure, the nurse is said to have

- ☒ A. Disrespected the patient
- B. Invasion of privacy
- C. Done injustice
- D. Did no wrong cause patient is sick and needs treatment

31. The patients charter of Ghana comprises of;

- A. Patients dos and donts
- B. Patient needs
- C. Patient priorities
- ☒ D. Patient rights and responsibilities

32. Nurses are obligated to do good and implement actions that benefit their patients and relations. This ethical principle is called

- A. Fidelity
- ☒ B. Beneficence
- C. Justice
- D. Veracity

33. Not giving a tetanus shot to a patient with a puncture wound, performing a medical procedure without proper training is considered....?

- ☒ A. Negligence
- B. Abuse
- C. Crime
- D. Malpractice

34. An authoritative statement or criterion by which the quality of practice can be judged is described as

- A. Code
- B. Ethic
- ☒ C. Standard
- D. Charter

35. Once a provider has agreed to take care of a patient, that contract may not be terminated improperly. When the care is terminated thenis said to have occurred.

- A. Negligence
- B. Crime
- ☒ C. Abandonment
- D. Abuse

36. A patient requests access to their medical records held by a healthcare institution. How should the healthcare institution handle this request?

- A. Deny the patient's request and keep their records confidential.
- B. Charge a high fee for accessing the records to discourage the patient.
- ☒ C. Provide the patient with their records in a timely manner and in accordance with applicable privacy laws.
- D. Share the patient's records with other healthcare institutions without their consent.

37. Making a decision on behalf of relative who has appointed you to act on behalf is called.

- A. Decider
- ☒ B. Surrogate decision maker
- C. kin
- D. Helper

38. The client has been told to stop smoking by the physician. The nurse discovers cigarettes in the client's bathrobe. At this time the nurse should;

- ☒ A. Let the client know they were found
- B. Report the situation to the head nurse
- C. Discard them without making comment
- D. Call the physician and request directions

39. The respect of a client's personal space and territoriality, the nurse;

- A. Avoids the use of touch
- ☒ B. Explains nursing care and procedures
- C. Keeps the curtains pulled around the clients bed
- D. Stands 8 feet away from the bed if possible

40. A retired Midwife Miss Sadia stops to help in an emergency at a scene of accident, if the injured party files suit, the nurse would probably be covered by;

- A. Her homeowner's insurance
- B. Her automobile insurance
- C. National care act
- ☒ D. The Good Samaritan Law

41. The following are names of laws made by parliament except

- A. Legislative instrument
- B. Statutory laws

- ☒ Administrative laws
D. Parliamentary laws

42. Common law or case laws are laws made by ...

- A. Parliament
☒ Court decisions
C. State regulatory councils
D. Executive

43. If a nurse only gives good care to a pregnant woman in exchange for gifts, this would be an example of;

- A. Fraud
☒ Exploitation
C. Libel
D. Slander

44. A student nurse on Clinical in your ward realizes that she has administered the wrong dose of medication to a patient, she immediately informs her clinical instructor. This student nurse is best described professionally as;

- A. Confident
B. Trustworthy
C. Complaint
☒ Accountable

45. When signing a form as a witness, your signature as a Nurse show that the client:
- A. Is fully informed and is aware of all consequences
 - B. Was awake and fully alert and not medicated with narcotic
 - C. Was free to sign without pressure
 - ☒ D. Has sign that form and the witness saw it being done
46. An 80-year-old female is brought to the emergency room for treatment of a fractured arm. On physical assessment, a nurse notes old and new ecchymotic areas on the client's chest and legs. The nurse asks the client how the bruises were sustained. The client although reluctant, tells the nurse in confidence that her son frequently hit her if supper is not ready on time when he arrives home from work. What type of abuse is this?
- A. Assault
 - ☒ B. Elder abuse
 - C. Negligence
 - D. None
47. John, a passerby, witnesses a person collapsing on the street. He is trained in first aid and starts performing CPR on the individual until paramedics arrive. Later, it is discovered that John made a mistake during the CPR process, resulting in additional injuries to the person. Can John be held liable for his actions?
- A. Yes, he can be held liable because he is not a medical professional and should not have attempted CPR.
 - ☒ B. No, he cannot be held liable because he was providing emergency care in good faith.
 - C. Yes, he can be held liable because his CPR technique was incorrect.
 - D. No, he cannot be held liable because he acted with the intention to help
48. Miss Agyeiwaa, an 85-year-old woman, believes that the life should not be prolonged when hope is gone. She has decided that she does not want extraordinary measures taken when her life is at its end. Because she feels this way, she has talked to her daughter about her desires, completing a living will and left directions with her physician. This is an example of;

- A. Health will
- ☒ B. Advance directive
- C. Choosing a value
- D. Reflecting decision

49. A nurse discovers what a primary care provider has prescribed an unusually large dosage of a medication. Which is the most appropriate action;

- A. Administer the medication
- ☒ B. Notify the prescriber
- C. Call the pharmacist
- D. Refuse to administer the medication

50. A delirious client was left alone with the side rails down, and the bed in a high position. Consequently, the client falls and breaks hand with bleeding head. The relatives of the client could sue for?

- A. Assault
- B. Battery
- ☒ C. Negligence
- D. Civil tort

51. When an individual dies as a result of a physical act of another person is termed?

- A. Felony
- B. Murder
- ☒ C. Homicide
- D. Manslaughter