

52. The doctor accidentally cuts the bowel during surgery. As a result of this action, the client develops an infection and suffers brain damage. The doctor can be charged with;

- ☒ A. Negligence
- B. Tort
- C. Assault
- D. Malpractice

53. Witnessing consent;

- A. Requires two signatures
- B. Must be done by a registered nurse
- C. Has no age specifications or limitations
- ☒ D. Implies that you have observed the client personally signing the consent form with no coercion

54. Legal document in the hospital include the following except;

- A. Wills
- B. Death certificate
- C. Police reports
- ☒ D. Daily ward state

55. An employee at a law firm accidentally accesses confidential client files that they were not authorized to view. What should the employee do in this situation?

- ☒ A. Immediately report the unauthorized access to their supervisor or the firm's data protection officer.
- B. Share the confidential client information with their colleagues.
- C. Ignore the accidental access and continue with their work.
- D. Inform the affected clients about the accidental access.

56. The execution of duties associated with nurse's particular role is called;
- A. Accountability
 - ☒ B. Responsibility
 - C. Non-maleficence
 - D. Veracity
57. Nurse Millicent has found a situation she has to make a decision on a patient where both are unfavorable, the situation is called
- A. Ethical confusion
 - ☒ B. Ethical dilemma
 - C. Nursing dilemma
 - D. Nursing confusion
58. The right and demand to be treated fairly and equally on admission is
- A. Confidentiality
 - B. Beneficence
 - ☒ C. Justice
 - D. Veracity
59. Nurse Mary Osei was caught for misrepresenting herself to obtain license to practice as a Nurse may be prosecuted for
- A. Stealing
 - ☒ B. Fraud
 - C. Impersonation
 - D. Embezzlement
60. When a patient agrees to a procedure after explanation has been given thenis said have been given,
- ☒ A. Informed consent
 - B. Patient agreement
 - C. Surgical agreement
 - D. None

61. Nurse Savior has threatened her patient that she will slap her if she does not cooperate.

The actions of the Nurse could best be described as

- ☐ A. Battery
- ☒ B. Assault
- ☐ C. Threat act
- ☐ D. Abuse

62. Student nurse Maryam Ahmed gives a wrong medication to a patient, she then tells the charge nurse about the wrong medication. The action of the nurse is said to be

- ☐ A. Confidentiality
- ☒ B. Trustworthy
- ☐ C. Maintained privacy
- ☐ D. Autonomous

63. An individual's right, within the law, to personal and informational privacy including his/her health care records is?

- ☒ A. Confidentiality
- ☐ B. Justice
- ☐ C. Autonomy
- ☐ D. Beneficence

64. One of the main objectives of the International Council of Nurses is to assist NNAs to

.....

- ☒ A. Improve the standards of nursing and the competence of nurses
- ☐ B. Improve salaries of National Nurses Associations
- ☐ C. All of the above
- ☐ D. None of the above

65. Any action that causes mental anguish or pain to another is called

- ☐ A. Battery
- ☐ B. Assault
- ☐ C. Threat act
- ☒ D. Abuse

66. A set of behavior that tells people how to behave in their life or in certain situation.
- A. Laws
 - B. Code
 - ☒ C. Norms
 - D. Values
67. The following is NOT an activity under "The Nurse and Practice"
- A. The nurse maintains the highest standard of nursing care possible
 - B. The nurse uses judgment in relation to individual competence when accepting responsibilities.
 - C. The nurse when acting in a professional capacity should at all times maintains standards of personal conduct which brings credit upon the profession
 - ☒ D. The nurse plays the major role in determining and implementing desirable standards of nursing practice and nursing education.
68. John publishes a false statement about his coworker, Mary, damaging her professional reputation. Mary believes this false statement constitutes defamation. Which type of tort does defamation fall under?
- ☒ A. Intentional tort
 - B. Negligent tort
 - C. Strict liability tort
 - D. Property tort
69. Thelma Hansen husband beats her to death during a conflict at home and the case has been reported to facility. The husband could be sued for
- ☒ A. Murder
 - B. Suicide
 - C. Manslaughter
 - D. Homicide
70. Another name (in legal terminology) for stealing is?
- A. Fraud
 - ☒ B. Larceny
 - C. Embezzlement
 - D. Robbery

71. Ensuring that patients, clients and relatives understand that some information may be made available to other members of the health team involved in the delivery of care has to do with ...?

- A. Respect for staff
- ☒ B. Maintaining confidentiality
- C. Autonomy
- D. None of the above

72. A coroner receives the body of an individual who was found dead at their home. The cause of death is unclear, and there are no obvious signs of foul play. What is the primary responsibility of the coroner in this situation?

- A. Determine the time of death.
- B. Determine the manner of death.
- ☒ C. To determine the cause of death.
- D. Notify the family of the deceased.

73. John publishes a false statement about his coworker, Sarah, on a social media platform, damaging her professional reputation. Sarah believes this false statement constitutes defamation. What must Sarah prove to establish a defamation claim?

- A. That the statement was false and caused harm to her reputation.
- B. That the statement was false, caused harm to her reputation, and was made with malice.
- ☒ C. That the statement was false, caused harm to her reputation, and was communicated to a third party.

D. That the statement was false, caused harm to her reputation, and was made negligently.

74. A female pregnant client is hospitalized because of severe depressions in pregnancy. She has been discharged and bills yet to be settled, Senior Nurse Esther Addae has asked patient to stay inside until bills are settled, patient can sue for

- A. Assault
- B. Malpractice
- C. Negligence
- ☒ D. False imprisonment

75. A midwife at Obo clinic has promised a pregnant woman that a new drug that dissolves fibroids during pregnancy and has sold same to this woman. Later the patient realised she has been deceived, the midwife is said to have committed

- A. Negligence
- ☒ B. Fraud
- C. Embezzlement
- D. Malpractice

76. A client Mr. Bernard 60 years diagnosed with end stage colorectal cancer, has a DNR code, the wife has asked that you resuscitate after patient collapsed. As a nurse what will be your action.

- ☒ A. Do not resuscitate cause patient ordered
- B. Resuscitate caused the wife is next of kin
- C. Report the wife
- D. None of the above

77. You are the healthcare proxy for your elderly father, who has been in the hospital for several weeks due to a terminal illness. The medical team informs you that your father's condition has worsened, and they recommend discussing the option of a Do Not Resuscitate (DNR) order. What should you do?

- A. Immediately agree to a DNR order without further discussion.
- ☒ B. Request more information about the implications and benefits of a DNR order.
- C. Insist on resuscitation efforts regardless of your father's condition.
- D. Delegate the decision-making responsibility to another family member or healthcare professional.

78. Miss Akua 14-year-old young mother has her baby admitted at the intensive care unit with her Mother, a decision is to be made on the baby for treatment, who signs the consent form

- ☒ A. The mother of the baby
- B. The grand mother
- C. Hospital management
- D. Social welfare

79. A local newspaper publishes an article about a popular celebrity, making negative and false statements about their personal life. The celebrity believes the article has damaged their reputation and wants to pursue a defamation claim. Which defense could the newspaper potentially assert?

- A. Truth as a defense, meaning the statements made in the article are true.
- ☒ B. Opinion as a defense, arguing that the article expressed subjective viewpoints.
- C. Public interest as a defense, claiming that the information was of public importance.
- D. Qualified privilege as a defense, asserting the publication was made in good faith.