

80. An example of intentional tort would be;
- A. Negligence
 - ☒ B. Defilement
 - C. Malpractice
 - D. Breach of duty
81. Mr. Kojo claims the wife a pregnant 30 yrs old lady admitted at St Gregory Catholic Hospital says a Midwife told his neighbor about her HIV status which she is clearly not happy about. He has threatened to sue, crime committed will be?
- A. Libel
 - B. Misdemeanor
 - ☒ C. Breach of confidentiality
 - D. Slander
82. When teaching about a child abuse at the ANC of Achimota Hospital, Nurse Benedicta tells a parent group that the best legal definition of battery is;
- A. Threats to do bodily harm to another person
 - ☒ B. The application of force to another person without lawful justification
 - C. A legal wrong committed by one person against the property of another
 - D. A legal wrong committed against the public and punishable by law through the state and courts.
83. The act of coming into a court and submitting to the authority of that court?
- A. Suer
 - B. Defendant
 - C. Plea
 - ☒ D. Appearance

84. During wound dressing for patient Amina with perineal burns, Nurse Grace forgot to screen patient appropriately during the procedure, the action of the nurse could be described as?

- ☒ A. Breach of confidentiality
- B. Invasion privacy
- C. Misdemeanor
- D. Invasion of space

85. Mark posts a review online stating that a restaurant served him spoiled food, resulting in food poisoning. The restaurant owner believes the review is false and damaging to their business. Which statement is likely to be considered defamatory?

- A. "I didn't enjoy the food at this restaurant."
- ☒ B. "The restaurant has poor hygiene practices."
- C. "The food gave me food poisoning."
- D. "The waitstaff was unfriendly."

86. A patient shares sensitive medical information with their healthcare provider during a counseling session. The patient explicitly requests that the information remain confidential. What is the healthcare provider's primary responsibility in this situation?

- A. Share the information with the patient's family members.
- B. Use the information for research purposes.
- C. Disclose the information to other healthcare providers involved in the patient's care.
- ☒ D. Maintain the confidentiality of the patient's information.

87. When teaching staffs about legal terminology used in child abused, the nurse emphasizes that the term abuse means;

- A. A legal wrong committed by one person against the property of another
- B. Maligning the character of a person while threatening to do bodily harm
- C. The application of force to another person without lawful justification
- ☒ D. Actions that cause physical or mental pain to another

88. Alex accidentally spills water on the floor of his apartment and fails to clean it up. Later, his neighbor, Sarah, slips on the wet floor and injures herself. Which type of tort could Sarah potentially pursue against Alex?

- ☒ A. Negligence
- B. Intentional infliction of emotional distress
- C. Trespass
- D. Strict liability

89. Lisa, a medical professional, witnesses a person collapse in a public park. However, she hesitates to provide assistance because she is concerned about potential legal repercussions. Can Lisa be held liable for not rendering aid?

- A. Yes, she can be held liable because she has a duty as a medical professional to provide aid.
- ☒ B. No, she cannot be held liable because individuals are not legally obligated to provide aid.
- C. Yes, she can be held liable because she has specific medical training.
- D. No

90. A child screams and cries noisily after parental visit, disturbing all the other children. When the crying is particularly loud and prolonged, the nurse puts the crib in a separate room and closes the door. The toddler is left there until the crying ceases, a matter of 30 or 45 minutes. Legally;

- A. The child needs to have limits set to control the crying
- B. The child had a right to remain in the room with the other children
- ☒ C. Keeping the child segregated alone for more than 30 minutes was too long
- D. The other children had to be considered, the child needed to be removed.

91. When obtaining consent for surgery, the nurse should initially;

- A. Explain the risk involved in the surgery
- B. Explain that obtaining a signature is a routine for any surgery
- ☒ C. Evaluate whether the clients knowledge level is sufficient to give consent
- D. Witness the signature because that is what the nurse's signature document

92. Which of the following deaths will not be captured under coroners case?

- A. Suicide
- B. BID
- ☒ C. Death of a known CVA patient admitted within 24hour
- D. Drowned patients

93. The family of a young lady who is set for myomectomy at the St Gregory catholic hospital complained that the midwife failed to obtain a signed consent before inserting an indwelling catheter for measuring hourly output. This is an example of;

- A. A treatment that does not need a separate consent form
- B. A catheter inserted for the client's benefits, so consent is not necessary
- ☒ C. Treatment without consent of the client, which is an invasion of rights
- D. Inability to obtain consent for treatment because the client was aware he is due for surgery.

94. Which of the following people qualifies as an emancipated minors?
- A. Minor not leaving alone
 - ☒ B. A child leaving alone
 - C. Minor with a severe condition
 - D. Minor without strict parents
95. The spouse of a comatose Mensah who has several internal bleeding refuses to allow transfusion of whole blood because they are Jehovah witnesses. The nurse involved in this situation should;
- A. Phone the physician for a special administrative order to give the blood under these circumstances
 - ☒ B. Hand the spouse the treatment refusal form and notify the physician so that a court order can be obtained
 - C. Gently explain to the spouse why the transfusion is necessary, emphasizing on the implications of not having the transfusion
 - D. Institute the blood transfusion anyway, because the physician order it and the client survival depends on volume replacement
96. Confidentiality of a patient can be breached in the following except.
- A. Concern for the safety of other specific persons (homicidal ideation).
 - B. Concern for public welfare
 - ☒ C. When the wife insist she needs to know the information
 - D. When it is shared with members of the health care team
97. A Nursing instructor is teaching students about ethics in nursing and midwifery and she tells them that the outmost importance in health care is doing no harm. The principle described here is
- A. Autonomy
 - B. Beneficence
 - C. Veracity
 - ☒ D. Non maleficence

98. Nurse Kojo is attending to a patient who has a documented DNR order. The patient suddenly experiences a cardiac arrest. What should you do?

- A. Begin immediate resuscitation efforts, disregarding the DNR order.
- B. Consult with the patient's family to obtain consent for resuscitation.
- ☒ C. Respect the patient's wishes and honor the DNR order.
- D. Seek a second opinion from another healthcare professional before taking any action.

99. The client has been told to stop smoking by the physician. The nurse discovers cigarettes in the client's bathrobe. At this time the nurse should;

- ☒ A. Let the client know they were found
- B. Report the situation to the head nurse
- C. Discard them without making comment
- D. Call the physician and request directions

100. A health care issue often becomes an ethical dilemma because;

- ☒ A. A client's legal rights co-exist with a health professional's obligation
- B. Decisions must be made quickly, often under stressful conditions
- C. Decisions must be made based on value system
- D. The choice involved do not appear to be clearly right or wrong