

Question 1

Which of the following is an advantage of traditional medicine?

- a. No side effect
- b. Limited insurance coverage
- c. Delayed treatment
- d. Diverse treatment options

Question 2

Which of the following is not a reason why people use traditional medicine?

- a. Affordability
- b. Availability
- c. Accessibility
- d. Authority

Question 3

Manaf Yakubu, an athlete visits a facility. The Diviner at this facility uses cowries, bones, and tarot cards. These substances are used for:

- a. Treatment of disease
- b. Prevention of disease
- c. Management of disease
- d. Diagnosis of disease

Question 4

Which of the following is NOT a plant secondary metabolite?

- a. Terpenes
- b. Alkaloids
- c. Amino acid
- d. Glycosides

Question 5

Michael Attah Obinna soaks his Paullinia pinnata (toa ntini) roots in alcohol for aphrodisiac action. Which of the following is a herbal preparation that contains alcohol?

- a. Concoction

- b. Poultice
- c. Tincture
- d. Decoction

Question 6

Traditional concepts of health and ill-health encompass a variety of beliefs and practices that often integrate physical,, and psychological elements.

- a. Spirit
- b. Spiritual
- c. Faith
- d. Divine

Question 7

Herbal ointments are primarily used for:

- a. Intestinal parasites
- b. External wounds
- c. Cardiac disorders
- d. Respiratory illness

Question 8

Which of the following religions believe in karma?

- a. Hinduism
- b. Judaism
- c. Christianity
- d. Islam

Question 9

The selection of plants for scientific evaluation is based on traditional uses.

- a. False
- b. True

Question 10

When illness is viewed as divine punishment for sin, it reflects the belief in:

- a. Karma
- b. Germ theory
- c. Ancestral vengeance
- d. Witchcraft

Question 11

During a visit, a patient says “my illness started after I disrespected my ancestors.” This is an example of:

- a. Psychological disorder
- b. Spiritual causation of illness
- c. Genetic cause
- d. Environmental cause

Question 12

Which year was the Alma-Ata Declaration adopted?

- a. 1985
- b. 1978
- c. 1975
- d. 1972

Question 13

The regulatory role of Ghana’s FDA in herbal medicine includes:

- a. Registration of healers
- b. Product approval and labeling control
- c. Importation of herbs
- d. Taxation of herbal shops

Question 14

Which of the following is used for digestive and anti-inflammatory action?

- a. Ginger
- b. Neem
- c. Eucalyptus

- d. Mango

Question 15

Which of the following is used to provide longer shelf life?

- a. Infusion
- b. Poultice
- c. Decoction
- d. Tincture

Question 16

The method of extracting herbs by boiling bark or roots is called:

- a. Tincture
- b. Syrup
- c. Infusion
- d. Decoction

Question 17

Herbal medicines that do not make therapeutic claims are classified as:

- a. Herbal syrups
- b. Herbal drugs
- c. Herbal food supplements
- d. Herbal capsules

Question 18

Which of the following is commonly known as ‘ayilo’ in Ga and ‘shere’ in Twi?

- a. Talc
- b. Chalk
- c. Bentonite
- d. Kaolin

Question 19

The following is not required on the label of herbal medicine products:

- a. Active ingredients and the quantities
- b. Warnings
- c. Directions for use and dosage
- d. Pharmacokinetic profile

Question 20

A healer consults bones to determine spiritual causes of illness before treatment. This practice is known as:

- a. Sacrifice
- b. Cleansing
- c. Divination
- d. Exorcism

Question 21

Herbalists harvesting roots should do so at the end of the vegetative process when organs contain maximum food reserves. This ensures:

- a. Longer fermentation period
- b. Better preservation
- c. Maximum active constituents
- d. Enhanced potency

Question 22

The following may not cause a person to experience ill-health in African Traditional Medicine:

- a. Anger their ancestors
- b. Targeted by evil spirits
- c. Break a taboo
- d. Being wealthy

Question 23

Herbalists who sell unregistered products violate regulations enforced by:

- a. The Food and Drugs Authority
- b. The Ghana Medical Association
- c. The Nursing and Midwifery Council

- d. The Ministry of Interior

Question 24

WHO's traditional medicine strategy includes all EXCEPT:

- a. Irrational use promotion
- b. Improving access
- c. Policy development
- d. Safety and quality assurance

Question 25

Traditional medicine does not belief in esoteric cause of illness.

- a. False
- b. True

Question 26

When a healer makes small incisions to release blood in order to restore balance, the procedure is called:

- a. Blood medicine
- b. Blood setting
- c. Blood cupping
- d. Bloodletting

Question 27

Which of the following is a disadvantage of herbal capsule?

- a. Masked bitter taste
- b. Easily administered
- c. Short shelf life
- d. Portable

Question 28

Who propounded the doctrine of signatures?

- a. Hippocrates

- b. Paracelsus
- c. Theophrastus
- d. John Snow

Question 29

A healer uses drum beating, dancing, and effigies made of clay during treatment. This describes:

- a. Herbal treatment
- b. Surgical ritual
- c. Faith healing
- d. Exorcism

Question 30

A herbal practitioner at KNUST uses dried neem leaves, powdered and filled into capsules. This dosage form is classified as:

- a. Semi-solid dosage form
- b. Liquid dosage form
- c. Vaporized dosage form
- d. Solid dosage form

1. d. Diverse treatment options
2. d. Authority
3. d. Diagnosis of disease
4. c. Amino acid
5. c. Tincture
6. b. Spiritual
7. b. External wounds
8. a. Hinduism
9. b. True
10. a. Karma

11. b. Spiritual causation of illness
12. b. 1978
13. b. Product approval and labeling control
14. a. Ginger
15. d. Tincture
16. d. Decoction
17. c. Herbal food supplements
18. d. Kaolin
19. d. Pharmacokinetic profile
20. c. Divination
21. c. Maximum active constituents
22. d. Being wealthy
23. a. The Food and Drugs Authority
24. a. Irrational use promotion
25. a. False
26. d. Bloodletting
27. c. Short shelf life
28. b. Paracelsus
29. d. Exorcism
30. d. Solid dosage form

Question 1

The practice of using both orthodox and herbal medicine together in one treatment plan is known as:

- a. Alternative medicine
- b. Complementary medicine
- c. Traditional medicine
- d. Integrative medicine

Question 2

Herbal ointments are classified under which dosage form?

- a. Liquid
- b. Semi-solid
- c. Solid
- d. Gas

Question 3

During a visit, a patient says “my illness started after I disrespected my ancestors.” This is an example of:

- a. Spiritual causation of illness
- b. Psychological disorder
- c. Environmental cause
- d. Genetic cause

Question 4

A Muslim may perform recitation of Quran verses to seek healing from Allah.

- a. False
- b. True

Question 5

Herbal powders are advantageous because they:

- a. Are easily portable and mask bitter taste
- b. Need refrigeration
- c. Require alcohol extraction

- d. Always have longer shelf life

Question 6

A patient seeks a herbal treatment from Kumasi South hospital. The attending practitioner is a:

- a. Physician Assistant
- b. Nurse Herbalist
- c. Medical Herbalist
- d. Herbal Doctor

Question 7

When a healer makes small incisions to release blood in order to restore balance, the procedure is called:

- a. Blood medicine
- b. Blood cupping
- c. Bloodletting
- d. Blood setting

Question 10

Kwabena, a farmer, uses herbal baths for relaxation after work. This form of therapy is considered:

- a. Invasive therapy
- b. External application
- c. Intrathecal
- d. Preventive

Question 11

When herbs are steeped in alcohol and water for preservation, the product is a:

- a. Syrup
- b. Decoction
- c. Tincture
- d. Infusion

Question 12

The role of WHO in traditional medicine includes all EXCEPT:

- a. Producing technical guidelines
- b. Promoting safe integration into health systems
- c. Encouraging quackery
- d. Facilitating research

Question 14

A community nurse notices that a patient attributes her illness to angered ancestors. The nurse recognizes this as an example of:

- a. Environmental causation
- b. Spiritual causation of illness
- c. Genetic disorder
- d. Germ theory of disease

Question 15

The method of extracting herbs by boiling bark or roots is called:

- a. Syrup
- b. Tincture
- c. Decoction
- d. Infusion

Question 16

"Guaranteed cure for all diseases" is a prohibited phrase in herbal medicine advertising claims.

- a. False
- b. True

Question 17

Herbal tea made from basil and cinnamon is an example of:

- a. Syrup

- b. Decoction
- c. Tincture
- d. Infusion

Question 18

The use of garlic for blood pressure control is supported by its known:

Question 18 Answer

- a. Antifungal activity
- b. Antiplasmodial activity
- c. Antihypertensive activity
- d. Antidiabetic activity

Question 19

In traditional diagnosis, divination is performed primarily to:

Question 19 Answer

- a. Prescribe herbal drugs
- b. Measure blood pressure
- c. Perform minor surgeries
- d. Identify spiritual causes of illness

Question 20

The regulatory role of Ghana's FDA in herbal medicine includes:

- a. Taxation of herbal shops
- b. Importation of herbs
- c. Registration of healers
- d. Product approval and labeling control

Question 21

Ama Serwaa prefers yoga and meditation alongside her blood pressure medication. Her approach is an example of:

- a. Complementary medicine
- b. Alternative medicine
- c. Conventional medicine

- d. Traditional medicine

Question 22

Herbal syrups are most appropriate for:

- a. Treating coughs and throat irritation
- b. Digestion
- c. Fungal infections
- d. Bone fractures

Question 23

Herbalists harvesting roots should do so at the end of the vegetative process when organs contain maximum food reserves. This ensures:

- a. Enhanced potency
- b. Better preservation
- c. Longer fermentation period
- d. Maximum active constituents

Question 24

A healer consults bones to determine spiritual causes of illness before treatment. This practice is known as:

- a. Cleansing
- b. Sacrifice
- c. Exorcism
- d. Divination

Question 25

Which year was the Alma-Ata Declaration adopted?

- a. 1972
- b. 1975
- c. 1978
- d. 1985

Question 26

The Centre for Plant Medicine Research was established in:

- a. 1985
- b. 1972
- c. 1978
- d. 1975

Question 27

Which of the following is an advantage of traditional medicine?

- a. Limited insurance coverage
- b. No side effect
- c. Delayed treatment
- d. Diverse treatment options

Question 28

The fruit of Tetrapleura tetraptera is used as an antihypertensive agent.

- a. True
- b. False

Question 29

The selection of plants for scientific evaluation is based on traditional uses.

- a. False
- b. True

Question 30

The Ghana Federation of Traditional Medicine Practitioners Associations (GHAFTRAM) was formally recognized in:

- a. 1995
- b. 2008
- c. 2012
- d. 2000

Here are the answers:

1. d. Integrative medicine
2. b. Semi-solid
3. a. Spiritual causation of illness
4. b. True
5. a. Are easily portable and mask bitter taste
6. c. Medical Herbalist
7. c. Bloodletting
8. a. Diagnosis of disease
9. d. Irrational use promotion
10. b. External application
11. c. Tincture
12. c. Encouraging quackery
13. d. The Food and Drugs Authority
14. b. Spiritual causation of illness
15. c. Decoction
16. b. True
17. d. Infusion
18. c. Antihypertensive activity
19. d. Identify spiritual causes of illness
20. d. Product approval and labeling control
21. a. Complementary medicine
22. a. Treating coughs and throat irritation
23. d. Maximum active constituents
24. d. Divination
25. c. 1978
26. b. 1972

27. d. Diverse treatment options

28. a. True

29. b. True

30. a. 1995