

INDEX NUMBER.....

KAAF UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

FACULTY OF HEALTH AND ALLIED SCIENCES

DEPARTMENT OF NURSING

2024/2025 ACADEMIC YEAR

END OF SEMESTER
ONE EXAMINATION

NURSING LEVEL& MIDWIFERY 400

REGULAR & WEEKEND

COURSE CODE KNUR409: MANAGEMENT AND ADMINISTRATION IN NURSING AND MIDWIFERY

DURATION: 2HOURS

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PAPER:

1. The QUESTIONS are MCQs

Read the scenario carefully before attempting to answer the questions.

2. Answer ALL Questions.
3. Do not leave your seat unless you are given permission by an invigilator
4. Do not communicate in any way with any other candidate in the examination room.
5. You are not to leave the examination room until after the first hour of the examination.

GOOD LUCK!!

INDEX NUMBER.....

1. The word “management” in relation to formal work is said to be a process which has a number of basic functions. How many are they?
 - A. Two
 - B. Three
 - C. Five
 - D. Four

ANSWER: C

2. The above management functions are arranged in a chronological order. Indicate from the following management functions the third function in line.

- A. Leading
- B. Directing
- C. Organising
- D. Planning and decision-making

ANSWER: B

3. Among the five management functions which of them has a dual usage?
- A. Controlling
 - B. Organising
 - C. Planning and decision-making
 - D. Directing

ANSWER: B

4. Which one of the management functions has a synonym as “monitoring”?
- A. Organising
 - B. Controlling
 - C. Directing
 - D. Leading

ANSWER: B

5. Which of the following management functions is used to ensure that work is on course without hindrance?
- A. Controlling
 - B. Directing
 - C. Organising
 - D. Leading

ANSWER: A

6. Which of the management functions can make or unmake the manager?
- A. Leading
 - B. Controlling
 - C. Organising
 - D. Directing

ANSWER: A

7. The Ward Manager/District Health Public Health Nurse is the
- A. Frontline Manager is the category of managers in the hospital
 - B. Frontline Manager is in the category of DNS in a Teaching Hospital.
 - C. Frontline Manager is in the category of a DDNS in the District Hospital
 - D. None of the above.

ANSWER: A

8. The steps involved in the first management function of the Ward Manager/District Public Health nurse are:
- A. Two
 - B. Six
 - C. Eight
 - D. Seven

ANSWER: C

9. The steps involved in question number 8 above are:
- A. Situation Analysis, Vision, Mission, Goals and objectives
 - B. Situation Analysis, Vision and Goals and Objectives and Planning

- C. Strategies, Implementation, Monitoring/Controlling, Evaluation and Budgeting
- D. A & C only

ANSWER: D

10. One of the essential skills of the Ward Manager/District Public Health Nurse is as follows:
- A. Planning and decision-making
 - B. Directing the staff to do the work to the satisfaction of their/patients/clients
 - C. Implementation
 - D. All the above

ANSWER: D

11. As a Ward Manager/District Public Health Nurse, which one of the management skills in question 9 above is very important for you?
- A. Planning and decision-making
 - B. Implementation
 - C. Leading the staff
 - D. All the above

ANSWER: D

12. The management function that helps the Ward Manager/District Public Health Nurse to be sure that work is on course without any hindrance is:
- A. Controlling
 - B. Leading
 - C. Organising
 - D. Directing

ANSWER: A

13. The following are benefits of planning:
- A. It assists the organisations in establishing a vision
 - B. It gives a purpose of direction
 - C. It helps the organisation to remain dynamic
 - D. A & C

ANSWER: D

14. The term “organising” in management has a dual usage as follows:
- A. Assembling and coordinating resources for work.
 - B. Establishment of formal structure
 - C. Establishment of formal organisational structure that defines lines of authority, communication and decision-making in the organisation
 - D. A & C

ANSWER:D

15. The organogram so developed
- A. Helps define roles and responsibilities of each level of management
 - B. Leads the staff to their head of the department
 - C. Defines the work each staff would do
 - D. All of the above

ANSWER: A

Three staff of the hospital/District Health Directorate who have just completed BSc. in General Nursing, Midwifery and Public Health Nursing respectively and one of them has a Public Health Nursing background. They have been appointed as Ward Managers/District Public Health Nurse in Otokunor Hospital and its Catchment Area. In the appointment letters of all three of them had Leadership as one of the key areas for the Hospital and the entire district.

16. Leadership is defined as follows:
- A. The ability of the Ward Manager/District Public Health Nurse to get the staff to follow her to do the work well.
 - B. The ability of the Ward Manager/District Public Health Nurse to get the staff to work for her to achieve her goal.
 - C. The ability of the Ward Manager/District Public Health Nurse to get the staff to follow a vision of a better state of affairs in the Hospital and its Catchment area.
 - D. The ability of the Ward Manager/District Public Health Nurse to get the staff to her side to work for her to achieve her goals.

ANSWER: C

17. Leadership is said to have a central concept which is stated as follows:
- A. Power to influence the staff to do things for the in-charge at any time the need arises
 - B. Power to influence the staff to do things they otherwise would not do
 - C. Power to influence the staff to carry out certain procedures which they would not do willingly
 - D. None of the above.

ANSWER: B

18. As a Ward Manager/District Public Health Nurse, you are the leader of the staff you work with. Leaders are said to have four (4) strategies they use as leaders. They are:
- A. Having the vision to take a long-term view in to shape the culture of the ward/district through persuasion of the staff
 - B. Adopt proactive approach using charisma and passion to make the staff emotional and excited so that you can sell your mission for the transformation of their work culture.
 - C. As a leader, you are ready to take risks, use conflict and frequently break rules for the benefit of the work.

D. All the above.

ANSWER: D

19. As a Ward Manager/District Public Health Nurse you are the leader of the staff on the ward or District. As a leader you should have leadership traits which project you to your boss that truly you are a leader.

A. Extrovert and Stable
B. Conscientious
C. Open
D. All the above

ANSWER: D

The first day you reported to your new facility, you were introduced to the Head of the Hospital/District Director of Health Services.

As the new Ward Manager/District Public Health Nurse of the Male Surgical Ward, and the district in his office. After the introduction, he and District Director of Health Services made a comment thus: We need a Ward Manager and a District Public Health Nurse who have a confluence of traits that reinforce each other for the ward and the district respectively.

20. Which traits constitute the confluence of traits the Head of the Hospital and the District Director of Health Services are referring to?

A. Openness and Creativity
B. Conscientiousness and Intelligence
C. Stable and Wisdom
D. Wisdom, Intelligence and Creativity

ANSWER: D

21. Authentic Leadership is characterised by being:
- A. Balanced in processing of issues objectively through analysis of data prior to making a decision.
 - B. Internalised moral perspective for his/her people
 - C. Being Transparent by being open and truthful in dealing with others
 - D. A & C

ANSWER: D

22. One of Henri Fayol's management principles is "Scalar Chain" which means:
- A. Straight line of communication in an organisation
 - B. Chain of command from the top-level management directly to the lowest level of the organisation
 - C. Communication between colleagues in an organisation
 - D. None of the above

ANSWER: B

Noka Old Students' Association based in Elmina, decided to build an Auditorium for their Alma Mater.

During the course of the meeting, one of the members by name Mr. Jeke, a DDNS of Danaa District Hospital and member of the Association, realized that they were not getting anyone to spearhead the project due to indecision of the Executive Committee. Based on his observation, he decided to help till the substantive project manager is engaged to takeover. His proposal was unanimously accepted and the work started. Later, the Executive Committee realized that Mr. Jeke was the right person for the project because of the qualities he is exhibiting.

23. What type of a leader is Mr. Jeke?

- A. Leader Emergence
- B. Leader Power
- C. Energetic Leader
- D. All of the above

ANSWER: A

Mr. Jeke was able to deploy resources, including human resource to manage the project to the end.

24. What Leadership quality did Mr. Jeke demonstrate to the Association?

- A. Referent Power
- B. Leadership Power
- C. Expert Power
- D. Defacto Power

ANSWER: C

There are four (4) main sources of leadership power that could be used.

25. Which of the leadership powers is based on knowledge and special expertise?

- A. Coercive Power
- B. Referent Power
- C. Expert Power
- D. Position Power

ANSWER: C

Mr. Jeke went to site on supervision one morning just to discover that one of the artisans have not been coming to work for two weeks without any reason. He decided to use one of the four (4) Leadership Powers in question.

26. Which of the four (4) powers do you think he would use in this instance?

- A. Expert Power
- B. Referent Power
- C. Coercive Power
- D. Position Power.

ANSWER: C

As a Ward Manager/District Public Health Nurse, you are to ensure that your patients are well cared for, hence the yearly planning to ensure that all resources needed for nursing the patients are available. During one of the ward rounds it happened that the Sphygmomanometer was faulty, two of the beds at the female ward also were faulty as well as the mattresses.

27. Which of the following management functions was used to discover the above issues?

- A. Leading
- B. Controlling
- C. Directing
- D. None of the above

ANSWER: B

During the course of the rounds, you discovered that two of the new Staff Nurses do not know how to set an IV line.

You immediately took over the procedure and taught them on the spot without hesitation. Later, you called them to your office and coached them on the procedure.

28. Which of the management functions had been used in this scenario?

- A. Leading
- B. Organising
- C. Directing
- D. Controlling

ANSWER: C

Senior Nursing Officer Grace Wokea, the Ward Manager for Male Surgical in Woekpo District Hospital. Her routine was to write requisition for items every Monday morning to the Stores for supplies for the ward. One Monday morning she did the usual thing and sent Staff Nurse Woekpo to the stores for cotton wool and bandages with other items for the ward. The Storekeeper sent the requisition back to the Ward Manager and said that there was none of the items in the store and everything was out of stock.

29. What do you think is the issue in this scenario?

- A. Ward Manager failed to lead
- B. Storekeeper did not do his work well by seeing to it that supplies are always in stock
- C. Ward Manager has been denied of her portion of supplies for the ward
- D. None of the above.

ANSWER: A

30. What do you think caused the shortage of the supplies in the Stores?

- A. Storekeeper is not in good terms with SNO Wokea
- B. The Hospital Administrator failed to purchase sufficient items for the Stores
- C. Ministry of Health did not release money for the Hospital early
- D. SNO Wokea failed to plan for her ward for the year.

ANSWER: D

31. What do you think contributed to this situation?
- A. Management did not assess the SNO to find out whether she knew how to run the ward
 - B. Management failed to direct the SNO as to her responsibilities as a Ward Manager
 - C. The SNO did like Management and Administration in Nursing and Midwifery course
 - D. A & B

ANSWER: D

32. What do you think is the route course of the problem?
- A. Teaching of the Management and Administration in Nursing and Midwifery course was full of theories without linking it to what the student would be doing after school.
 - B. SNO Wokea was noted for dodging Management and Administration in Nursing and Midwifery lectures when she was in school.
 - C. The Nursing and Midwifery Administration of the Hospital does not assess the staff based on their job description for directing before allowing them to be on their own
 - D. All the above

ANSWER: D

33. In components of a plan, which component outlines resource allocation?
- A. Objective
 - B. Strategy
 - C. Tactics

D. Budget

ANSWER: D

34. How can this issue be addressed by the Hospital?
- A. All Nurses and Midwives occupying management position must have a course in Management and Administration in Nursing and Midwifery.
 - B. All Nursing and Midwifery Administrators must ensure that all Frontline Managers are assessed and given in-service training in management and administration of the ward before assumption of duty.
 - C. All new Ward Managers of Nursing and Midwifery should manage their ward well.
 - D. A & B.

ANSWER: D

35. One of the important functions of the Ward Manager/District Public Health Nurse in the area of Planning which is very essential to their work is:
- A. Requisition for Materials for the staff to work with.
 - B. Policing the staff all the time to ensure work is done properly
 - C. Monitoring the work process to make sure goals are met
 - D. Budgeting for all items and activities in the plan.

ANSWER: D

As a Ward Manager/District Public Health Nurse you are the planner and decision-maker for the ward/District Health Management Team.

36. As a decision-maker, what are the steps you are to take in the process are listed below, which of them is the first?
- A. Analyse and determine the possible courses of action
 - B. Recognise there is an issue
 - C. Implement the solution

D. Consider the relevant facts, laws and principles and Identify the problem and who is involved.

ANSWER: D

37. As a Ward Manager/DPHN, one of your responsibilities is to create a motivating climate. The following are types of motivation, which one precedes the others?

- A. Intrinsic Motivation
- B. Extrinsic Motivation
- C. External Motivation
- D. All the above

ANSWER: A

Ward Managers/ District Public Health Nurses are known to have a high need for achievement and want to get ahead in his/her career.

38. What type of leader is she/he?

- A. Honest, trustworthy and well organised leader
- B. Intelligent and verbally fluent leader
- C. Energetic and tenacious leader
- D. All the above.

ANSWER: B

39. A leader who analyses situations accurately and solves problems and makes sensible decisions is said to be:

- A. Self-confident and interpersonally skilled leader is said to be capable of coping with the setbacks and take hard decisions and usually emotionally stable.
- B. They usually accumulate considerable information about the ward's/district's vision, strategies, technologies and procedures