

- C. They are good at obtaining and keeping the confidence of the other Ward Managers/District Public Health Nurses and they usually keep their word.
- D. All the above.

ANSWER: D

40. A Ward Manager/DPHN who understands the Ward/District and its work/the issues he/she accumulates considerable information about the Ward's/District's vision, strategies, technologies and procedures is referred to as:
- A. He/She has a high need for achievement and wants to get ahead in his/her career. She prepared to take the initiative to make things happen.
  - B. He/she is good at obtaining and keeping the confidence of other people. He usually keeps his words.
  - C. He/she understands their Ward/District and its work/issues. He/she accumulates considerable information about the Ward/District's vision, strategies, technologies and procedures.
  - D. All the above.

ANSWER; D

41. A leader who tends to have a high need for achievement and wants to get ahead in his/her career. He/she prepares to take the initiative to make things happen is referred to as:
- A. Energetic and tenacious leader
  - B. Intelligent and verbally fluent-leader.
  - C. Honest, trustworthy and well organised leader.
  - D. Professionally astute leader.

ANSWER: C

A leader is said to be a confluence of traits that reinforce each other. These are Wisdom, Intelligence and Creativity. Each of these traits involves a specific trait

42. Wisdom involves the following:

- A. Set of skills and dispositions needed for the solution of everyday problems.
- B. Having the right values and tacit knowledge of the Ward/District and its working environ and being able to appraise social situations with accuracy.
- C. Practical intelligence – the set of skills and dispositions needed to solve every day problems.
- D. None of the above

ANSWER: B.

43. Intelligence: Practical Intelligence-

- A. Set of skills and dispositions needed to solve problems.
- B. Involves skills and dispositions for generating new ideas and excellent care/organisation of the communities for better health status of both children and adults.
- C. Group of skills and dispositions needed to solve everyday problems
- D. All the above.

ANSWER: B

44. Creativity:

- A. Involves skills and dispositions for generating new ideas and good care/new ideas for maintenance and development of the community through innovations
- B. It is more than solving academic or abstract problems
- C. It includes being able to appraise social situations with accuracy in the Ward/Community
- D. All the above.

ANSWER: A

45. Characteristics of Authentic Leadership, Internalised moral perspective is:

- A. Balanced processing of the way leaders; Ward Manager/DPHN objectively analyse data before making a decision.
- B. Internalised moral perspective is related transparency
- C. Self-awareness; that is extended to all the staff under you as a leader (Ward Manager/DPHN).
- D. It is the way leaders objectively analyse data before making a decision.

ANSWER: A

46. Leading is:

- A. Stimulating the staff of your ward/District to become high performers.
- B. Stimulating the staff to be stern with the job/work.
- C. Stimulating the staff to be punctual to work.
- D. None of the above.

ANSWER: A

47. Leading involves:

- A. Being stern with the staff so that they work
- B. Being firm with the junior staff so that they bring out their best in nursing the patient/mobilizing the communities for the environmental cleanliness.
- C. Close day-to-day contact with the staff, helping to guide and inspire them towards the achievement of the objectives/goals of the ward/community and those of the entire hospital/the district.
- D. All the above.

ANSWER: C

48. Ward Manager's/District PHN's leadership outcomes include:
- A. Motivation and values
  - B. Luthan's Skills and Proximal
  - C. Leader emergence and Effectiveness
  - D. None of the above

ANSWER: C

49. The Ward Manager's/DPHN's responsibility is to:
- A. Lead the staff to work and come out with good outcome, through effective and efficient management of the ward/district.
  - B. Lead the staff to ensure that there is discipline on the ward/on the field
  - C. Lead the staff to ensure that they write requisition to that they write requisition to the storekeeper for supplies for the ward/the subdistrict.
  - D. All the above.

ANSWER: A

50. Ward Managers/District PHNs are to ensure that:
- A. The Ward/District Health Directorate mobilizes the staff to contribute to their ideas.
  - B. The Ward/District Health Directorate must ensure that the staff contribute their ideas for the betterment of services to the patients/communities/district.
  - C. A & B only
  - D. None of the above.

ANSWER: C

51. Controlling is the
- A. Fourth management function
  - B. Controlling is for the leader to follow the staff everywhere they go
  - C. Controlling is about monitoring the nurse closely of every step they take on the ward/field.
  - D. It involves learning and changing as a Ward Manager/District Public Health Nurse.

ANSWER: B

52. Delegation is transfer of responsibility for the performance of an activity:
- A. From one staff or Ward Manager/DPHN to another staff, while the Ward Manager/DPHN retains accountability for the outcome.
  - B. From the Ward Manager/DPHN to the Medical Officer/District Director of Health Services, while he/she retains the ownership.
  - C. The Nursing Officer assigns procedure to an acutely ill patient (Staff Nurse) to take over the care of the patient.
  - D. A & B

ANSWER: D

53. The essential aspects of delegation include:
- A. Talking to the surgeon as to what to do after the surgery
  - B. The Ward Manager asking the second in command to get the theatre ready for the surgeons.
  - C. The nursing Process
  - D. None of the above.

ANSWER: D

54. What does the Ward Manager/DPHN do when delegating a task to the Staff Nurse/Staff Midwife/PHN at the subdistrict level?
- A. Tell the staff Nurse/Staff Midwife/PHN what to do and report back.
  - B. Communicate succinctly and offer clear guidelines in advance about what the Staff should do.
  - C. Write a note and leave it with the Ward Assistant for the Staff Nurse/Staff Midwife/PHN.
  - D. All the above.

ANSWER: B

55. What do you do as a delegator; that is, your responsibility?
- A. Monitor progress, and remain accountable for the outcomes of care to the patient/client
  - B. Tell the Staff concerned to be accountable
  - C. Make sure you do the right thing
  - D. None of the above.

ANSWER: A

56. In delegating, the delegator is accountable to the following:
- A. The act of delegation
  - B. Supervision of performance of the delegate
  - C. Assessment and follow-up evaluation; and monitoring.
  - D. All the above.

ANSWER: B

57. The delegate must be accountable for the following:
- A. The delegate must be accountable for his/her own actions.
  - B. Accepting within the parameters of his/her training and education
  - C. Communicating the appropriate information to the delegator.
  - D. All the above.

ANSWER: B

58. Supervision is an active process of:
- A. Directing and guiding the Staff Nurse/Staff Midwife/PHN to take over for the Ward Manager/DPHN to take a rest.
  - B. Directing and guiding the delegate to undertake the task delegated to him/her.
  - C. Delegation must be done based on the delegate's capacity, knowledge and intelligence
  - D. B&C.

ANSWER: D

59. Communication is said to be:
- A. Complex
  - B. Complex and ongoing dynamic process
  - C. Participants simultaneously create shared meaning in interpretation.
  - D. B &C.

ANSWER: D

60. Communication as a process is said to be a complex and ongoing:
- A. Participations must simultaneously create shared meaning in an interaction.
  - B. The goal of communication process is to approach as closely as possible common understanding of the message and the one receiving it.
  - C. Communication involves steps.
  - D. All the above.

ANSWER: B

61. As a Ward Manager/DPHN you smoothly run the ward/district you are to manage the ward/district to the admiration of your DDNS//Regional DDNS (PH):
- A. By regularly monitoring them
  - B. Directing
  - C. Mentoring
  - D. All the above.

ANSWER: B

62. Communication is said to involve six steps. Which of the steps is referred to as IDEATION?
- A. To share the content of a message with someone
  - B. To communicate his/her message with the staff
  - C. She develops an idea, select information to share with the staff
  - D. All the above.

ANSWER: C

63. The Ward Manager/DPHN decides to encode a message by:
- A. Encoding the message
  - B. Putting the message into symbolic forms
  - C. Speaking, writing
  - D. All the above.

ANSWER: B

64. Transmission of message: one must overcome interference such as
- A. Garbled speech
  - B. Unintelligible use of words
  - C. Long complex sentences/or illegible hand writing
  - D. All the above.

ANSWER: C

65. Receiving of messages is affected by the following factors:

- A. Seeing and hearing
- B. Selective attention
- C. Incomplete and distortion of interpretation of content of the communication.
- D. All the above.

ANSWER: D

66. Communication is defined as the process of passing information to one another.
- A. Passing information and understanding it.
  - B. Passing on information and understanding from one person to another.
  - C. Communication should always be in a written form
  - D. All the above.

ANSWER: B

67. Managerial communication is said to be:
- A. The thread that strengthens the fabric of nursing, midwifery/public health is communication
  - B. Effective communication between the clinical nurses, midwives and the public health nurses is essential for the health and health-related issues with Ward Managers/DPHNs is essential for the health and Health-related issues within the population.
  - C. A&B
  - D. None of the above

ANSWER: C

68. The Purpose of external communication is to:
- A. Influence the performance of the staff
  - B. Influence the work of the staff
  - C. Create avenue for information input
  - D. A &C.

ANSWER: D

69. Types of communication in nursing and midwifery as well as public health nursing include:
- A. Verbal Communication
  - B. Written
  - C. Non-verbal
  - D. All the above

ANSWER: D

70. Types of written communication used in nursing, midwifery and public health nursing include:
- A. Nurse's notes
  - B. Changes
  - C. Monthly, quarterly, half-year yearly reports
  - D. All the above.

ANSWER: D

71. Which of the management functions is directed towards the formation of an organizational structure?
- A. Communication within and without the organization
  - B. Directing the staff to work well
  - C. Organising processes of the organisation
  - D. None of the above.

ANSWER: A

72. An organizational chart is said to provide a visual picture of the organization. What other benefit is derived from it?
- A. It attracts people the organization for recruitment purposes
  - B. The organization is exposed to a wide range of people
  - C. It also exposes the organization to the public to know that such an organization exists

D. It makes the organization popular

ANSWER: A

73. A. An organisational chart directs visitors to locate early where to go for help.

B. It makes location of departments by the public easier.

C. A&B

D. None of the above

ANSWER: C

74 What other benefits the organogram brings on board to the organization?

A. It specifies what the organization does

B. Its usefulness to the public/the host community.

C. It attracts too many people to the community

D. The indigenes may end up losing their landed properties to outsiders.

ANSWER: A&B

75. What benefit is the organogram/organizational chart is to the Ward Manager/District PHN?

A. It helps the Nurse Manager/District PHN the ward/district is such a way that the hosts community

(ties) derive the most benefit from its health wise

B. It creates job opportunity(ies) for the youth

C. It will help the community both economically and socially.

ANSWER: A& C.

76. How is the Ghanaian Health system run? State two weaknesses in the health system in the country which are suppressing development of the health sector.

A. Division among the staff

- B. There is infighting among the various groups.
- C. Low salary for the nurses and midwives
- D. All of the above

ANSWER: D

77. According to Planning and components of a plan's principle, which step involves identifying alternatives?

- A. Goal-setting
- B. Analysis
- C. Implementation
- D. Evaluation

ANSWER: B

78. In Objective Setting, what characterizes SMART objectives?

- A. Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant, Time bound
- B. Simple, Manageable, Attainable, Realistic, Trackable
- C. Strategic, Measurable, Actionable, Reliable, Timely
- D. Specific, Manageable, Achievable, Relevant, Efficient

ANSWER: A

79. According to the reference (Judge et al. 2002), there are how many types of Leadership traits?

- A. THREE
- B. FIVE
- C. FOUR
- D. SIX

ANSWER: C

80. According to the reference (Judge et al. 2002), which of the following is NOT a Leadership trait?

- A. Extrovert
- B. Conscientious
- C. Stable
- D. CLOSE

ANSWER: D

81. According to Authentic Leader (Luthans & Avolio, 2003), which of the following is the most accurate definition of an “Authentic Leader”

- A. Authentic Leadership is defined as “a process that draws from both positive psychological capacities and highly developed organisational context, which results in both greater self-awareness and self-regulated positive behaviour. Fostering positive self-development.
- B. Authentic Leadership is defined as “a process that draws from both positive psychological capacities and highly developed organisational context, which results in both greater self-awareness and self-regulated positive behaviour
- C. Authentic Leadership is defined as “a process that draws from both positive psychological capacities and highly developed organisational context, which results in only greater self-awareness without self-regulated positive behaviour.
- D. Authentic Leadership is defined as “a process that draws from both positive psychological capacities and highly developed organisational context, which results in both greater self-awareness and self-regulated positive behaviour. Fostering positive self-development and other exhibiting qualities needed to enlighten a follower(s).

ANSWER: A

82. According to the American Nurses association (2005),
Delegation therefore defined as

- A. The transfer of responsibility for the performance of an activity from one individual to another, while retaining accountability for the outcome.
- B. Delegation is a legal and management concept that involves assessment, planning, intervention, and evaluation.
- C. Bearing responsibility for both the action and inaction of the nurse and those to whom the tasks have been delegated.
- D. The transfer of responsibility or duty for the performance of an activity from one individual to another, while retaining accurate accountability for the outcome.

ANSWER: A

83. According to the reference (Fisher, 1999 in Barbara Cherry and Susan R. Jacob), Accountability in the context of Delegation is

- A. The transfer of responsibility for the performance of an activity from one individual to another, while retaining accountability for the outcome.
- B. Delegation is a legal and management concept that involves assessment, planning, intervention, and evaluation.
- C. Bearing responsibility for both the action and inaction of the nurse and those to whom the tasks have been delegated.
- D. The transfer of responsibility or duty for the performance of an activity from one individual to another, while retaining accurate accountability for the outcome.

ANSWER: C

84. Which of the following is NOT an essential aspect of delegation?

- A. The nursing process
- B. Task identification and transfer
- C. Communication
- D. Observation

ANSWER: D

85. The Registered Nurse/RM/RPHN is responsible to delegate tasks to an enrolled or community health nurse and _____

- A. A newly qualified nurse/midwife/PHN
- B. A newly qualified nurse and midwife.
- C. A newly qualified RM, Midwife, RN and PHN
- D. None of the above

ANSWER: A

86. When delegating tasks, the RN/RM/RPHN should do all of the following EXCEPT _____

- a. Communicate loquaciously
- b. communicate succinctly,
- c. offer clear guidelines in advance,
- d. monitor progress, and remain accountable for the outcomes of care